Good milk cow for sale. Apply to Mrs. C A Pitts.

The graded school board was in session this afternoon.

See Fetzer's Drug Store ad. north-west corner of third page.

As some ladies would say: Sunday was "just perfectly lovely."

Report for to-morrow's weather says: "Tuesday fair and warmer."

Rail Road Mills Snuff for sale, wholesale and retail by J P Allison.

The furnace at the Presbyterian church got out of fix Sunday night and services were conducted in the basement.

They are making ladies' bonnets now that are no trouble to carry. You can put 'em in an average sized envelope.

Capt. Wm. Propst, of the board of county commissioners, was not in attendance today, having had a hard chill.

Cotton receipts were up in the fifties to-day, but the price has declined a few points. Good fancy cotton brought 84.

J P Allison has just gotten in Large Hominy, Rolled Oats, Prunes, Macaroni, Bakers Chocolate, Olives, Pickles, etc., all fresh and nice. tf

Mr. Rob Russell, who lives on the hill beyond the depot on the Rocky Edge road, is critically ill with typhoid fever.

THE STANDARD is glad to announce that Mr. M H Lefler, of No. 11, who has been sick for three months, is convalescent.

For board apply to Mrs. Dr. Holden; either regular or transient; residence on Church street, second door east of jail. Terms reasonable.

Twenty minutes wait at the depot waiting rooms without fire is not very comfortable, but the depot like others sometimes gets out of coal.

The handsome new drug store of Dr. A W Moose, of Mt. Pleasant, is nearly completed. The structure is a small one, but conveniently located.

Rev. J S Dunn preached at Forest Hill Methodist church Sunday night. His congregation was large and attentive and was well repaid by a splendid discourse.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D O Furr's at Forest Hill. tf

An exposition party composed of Dr. and Mrs. J S Lafferty, Messrs. Flemming, J L Brown and Crawford Gillon left this (Monday) morning for a week's trip to Atlanta. All are of No. 4 township.

Corbette and Fitzsimmons were run out of Arkansas, and the fight has been declared off.

Both Democrats and Republicans claim to be confident of carrying the State of New York tomorrow. Betting is 2 to 1 on the Tammany ticket.

Master Wille Willeford brought us in two June apples—the second crop. They are now Novembers and are as large as a hickory nut. What a climate!

Two blasts from the whistle of the dynamo is an answer to the call bell at the water tank instead of response to the fire alarm as stated in Saturday's paper.

Murderer Holmes, who has been on trial for his life in Philadelphia for the murder of one of his accomplices in crimes, was found guilty of murder in the first degree.

The Salisbury World is authority for the news that Edgar Shuman, formerly a resident of Concord, got his thumb so badly hurt with a rip-saw at Salisbury Friday that amputation was necessary.

The neighbors, around St. John's, of Mr. Jackson Safrit, who was so badly injured and suffered so much in the explosion, have made up a handsome purse and presented him as a token of sympathy and fellowship.

Lawyer J Lee Crowell will break ground tomorrow morning for the erection of a handsome residence of modern style on Mill street, on the vacant lot between Mrs. Nicholson's and the old Cannon house. The site is a pretty and convenient one.

The only permanent cure for chronic catarrh is to thoroughly expel the poison from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatment has failed to relieve the sufferer.

The hour for holding evening service at the different churches of the city has been changed from 7:30 to 7 o'clock. Please note the change. At St. James Lutheran church the Sunday school hour has been changed from 4 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

A cough which persists day after day, should not be neglected any longer. It means something more than a mere local irritation, and the sooner it is relieved the better. Take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is prompt to act and sure to cure.

It is with great pleasure THE STANDARD announces that Mr. W G Means, who has been so seriously ill, is now convalescing at a rapid and very encouraging rate. This will be to many others equally as glad news, as it is for THE STANDARD to publish it.

Prof. Thompson, it is alleged, will give his school a week's holiday soon, that he (Prof. Thompson) may take a bridal trip to Atlanta. In this important trip and for life thereafter a young lady of Statesville is deeply concerned. She is well-known in Concord, where she has many friends.

Few people take as much interest in pleasing the public as does Mr. John K Patterson, who is always up to date in the grocery line. He has just received a fresh lot of Heckler's Buckwheat, macaroni, ginger snaps, pretzels, cakes, crackers, figs, dates, nuts, raisins, cocoanuts, plain and fancy candies, lemons, apples, oranges, canyassed hams, leaf and country lard, cottolene, Daisy cheese, the finest ever brought to the city, an assortment of molasses, and in fact everything that is found in a well regulated and first-class grocery store. n18
