A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Rail Road Mills Snuff for sale wholesale and retail by J P Allison.

There is one consolation in Tuesday's election results: The Democrats beat the Pops.

Esquire W J Hill will begin at once to put in a handsome plate glass front in his store room.

A party of thirteen came in from Stanly county Tuesday night and boarded the southbound train for Arkansas.

For board apply to Mrs. Dr. Holden; either regular or transient; residence on Church street, second door east of jail. Terms reasonable.

Mr. Ed. Fisher told a reporter that his hogs are so fat that the grease actually runs from the back and sides.

J P Allison has just gotten in Large Hominy, Rolled Oats, Prunes, Macaroni, Bakers Chocolate, Olives, Pickles, etc., all fresh and nice.

There will be no prayer-meeting service at St. James Lutheran church to night, owing to the serious illness of Rev. Scherer's little girl.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill.

Mr. M B Hartell is again associated with the genial and courteous set of clerks at the Odell company store. He will make Concord his home for several months at least.

Salisbury World: Mrs. John Bost came in from Concord this morning. Mrs. Bost will remain in the city until Sunday when she will return to Concord accompanied by her two children.

THE STANDARD has been requested to announce that the Epworth League of Central Methodist church will meet tomorrow (Thursday) night at Mrs. L P Cole's, on North Spring street, at 8 o'clock.

The performing bear frightened several horses on the streets today, but no accidents occurred. It was a tan colored animal of the zingerman specie, a most hideous looking thing, but handsomer than the men who had the bear.

Few people take as much interest in pleasing the public as does Mr. John K Patterson, who is always up to date in the grocery line. He has just received a fresh lot of Heckler's Buckwheat, macaroni, ginger snaps, pretzels, cakes, crackers, eggs, dates, nuts, raisins, cocoas, nuts, plain and fancy candies, lemons, apples, oranges, canned hams, leaf and country lard, cottolene, Daisy cheese, the finest ever brought to the city, an assortment of molasses, and in fact everything that is found in a well regulated and first-class grocery store.

North Carolina Sunday School Convention.

The Fourteenth Annual Convention of the Sunday School Workers of North Carolina will be held in Goldsboro, commencing Monday, November 25th, 1895, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., and continuing Tuesday and Wednesday, November 26th and 27th.

The Convention will be attended by Prof. H M Hamill, Superintendent of Normal Work, of the Illinois Sunday School Association and probably by Evangelists W P Fife and Weston K Gales and other prominent workers.

The representation in the Convention will consist of members of the State Executive Committee, all speakers named in the Programme of the Convention, and five delegates from each county.

Greatly reduced round-trip rates of fare will be obtained from all railroads. An outline programme and information concerning railroad facilities will be published as soon as possible.

All Counties which have not held Conventions this year, are earnestly requested and urged to take immediate action, hold Conventions and elect delegates to the State Convention. A full representative from every county in the State is greatly desired.

We appeal to the Ministers, Superintendents and every lover of the Sunday School cause throughout the State, to bestir themselves and see that County Conventions are held in Counties where none have been held during the year.

The local committee, on behalf of the people of Goldsboro, extend a hearty invitation to the Convention, and will cordially welcome to their Christian homes, Pastors and Sunday school workers throughout the State.

County Associations are urged to prepare full statistical reports for the Convention, blanks for which can be obtained from Mr. J W Causey, Statistical Secretary, Greensboro.

Let every Sunday School in the State determine, if possible, to be represented at Goldsboro by its very best workers, and it should be the prayer and expectation of the Christian people of North Carolina that the approaching Convention will be the most successful and memorable one of the series in its favor, its high tone, its powerful and permanent spiritual effects, and its results of good fruit in the vineyard which we are aiming to cultivate.

Respectfully,
H. N. SNOW, Chm. Ex. Com.
N. B. BROUGHTON, Pres.

A cough which persists day after day, should not be neglected any longer. It means something more than a mere local irritation, and the sooner it is relieved the better. Take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is prompt to act and sure to cure.

Dr. D J Salterfield, of Scotia Seminary, and Rev. Logan, pastor of the colored Presbyterian church are in attendance upon the meeting of the Catawba Northern Presbyterian Synod, which is in convention at Fayetteville.

The only permanent cure for chronic catarrh is to thoroughly expel the poison from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatment has failed to relieve the sufferer.

Louise Means, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. George W Means, met with a painful accident Tuesday afternoon. She was walking a suspended plank and having on a pair of new shoes, the child's feet slipped and the fall resulted in a broken arm, just above the wrist.

THE RUSH OF HUMANITY.

People Who Travel, as Seen by our Reporter.

—Mr. O F Asbury was over yesterday from Charlotte.

—Miss Bettie White of Rocky River, spent the day in the city.

—Miss Laura Gourley is visiting relatives in No. 10 township.

—Miss Zula Stratford returned last night from a lengthy visit to relatives in Greensboro.

—Mrs. D J Bostian left last night for Shelby to attend the bedside of her sick brother, Mr. Ed. Boone.

—Mr. and Mrs. J W Cannon and two children left this morning for the Atlanta Exposition, to be gone a week.

—Mrs. Stevens Smith, Livingston, Ala., is visiting her friend, Mrs. R E Gibson. Mrs. Smith was before her marriage Miss Mamie Phifer, of Lincolnton, and has many friends in this city.

—Miss Daisy Chandler and Mr. Moore, of Bessemer City, the first maid of honor and the groom's best man arrived in the city last night to attend the Garrison-Coltrane wedding tonight.

—Mrs. J M Odell went over to Charlotte this morning to be present at the Scott-Springs wedding, which takes place at the First Presbyterian church in that city at 9 o'clock to-night and to attend the reception immediately following the marriage, at the Central hotel.

Quotations from the New York cotton market could not be obtained Tuesday, owing to the fact that it was election day in that state. It brought 8.75 yesterday and this morning, but about 10 o'clock the price dropped to 8 1/2. A great deal of the product is now coming in.

Everything is in perfect readiness at Central Methodist church for the marriage tonight of Dr. D A Garrison, of Bessemer City to Miss Jaunita Coltrane, which occurs at 9 o'clock. The decorations are beautiful. After the rehearsal last night the attendants were entertained at Miss Coltrane's home, where an elegant supper was served.

The Salisbury World mentioned last week that the familiar face of L W Springs, the corpulent drummer so well known to Salisbury merchants would in the future be missing. We are informed that Mr. Springs has fallen heir to a cool $100,000 and has gone to Delaware to open up a poultry farm. We don't blame him for not selling snuff.

Joe. E. Gentry on Top.

Mr. J C Wadsworth saw the race Tuesday between Gentry and Patchen at Reidsville.

Joe. E Gentry beat Joe Patchen three straight heats. The time of first heat was 2:10; of the two others 2:08 each.

The crowd was large, but at $1 each for admission the crowd was not large enough to keep the association out of the snuff.

On Thanksgiving.

At a meeting of the Concord volunteer hose and reel company Tuesday night, it was decided that the firemen have an oyster supper, which will be held at armory hall on Thanksgiving night in order to raise funds, which the company is sorely in need of. The city at large will be called upon for donations and a liberal patronage. They need equipments, such as uniforms, gum coats, etc., and have taken it upon themselves to raise the money independently. Everybody should take an interest in the event and make it a success. Look out for the soliciting committee.
