ABDUCTION CASE DECISION.

The Boy Has Been Given to the Father and is Now in School.

HICKORY, N. C., Nov. 3.—Prof. Sevario D'Anna, who figured extensively in the abduction case, left yesterday for his home at Sayre Institute, in Lexington, Ky.

The boy, Hugh, who was the innocent cause of all this contention, has been once more placed with his step-grandmother, Mrs. Alice Merrill, from whose custody he was taken by his mother, Mrs. Thompson. The little fellow will at once resume his studies at Claremont Female College. The decision of Judge Timberlake was received with unfeigned satisfaction by a majority of the people of Hickory, where all parties to the case are well known. The judgement finds the following facts:

1. That Thompson is a drunkard, a gambler and a spendthrift.

2. That Mrs. Thompson is a woman of high character and, were it not for her husband, a suitable person to have the custody of the child.

3. That Sevario D'Anna is a man of irreproachable character and in every way fitted to provide support and education for the boy.

The decree also directs that the mother shall be allowed to see Hugh whenever she wills. He is not to be removed from the State for two years and at the end of one year, if she so desires, Mrs. Thompson may apply for the custody of her son by showing any new fact that should entitle her to the possession of him.

Judge Timberlake made no secret of the fact that his sympathies were with the woman. He decided in favor of Prof. D'Anna only from stern conviction that the future of the child demanded it. In their argument of the case, Messrs. Huffman and Bickett, who conducted the plaintiff's case in Louisburg, took substantially that ground. Judge Timberlake remarked after the judgement was signed: "If I thought that I would have another case like this, I would telegraph my resignation to the Governor at once." The defendant has appealed and the case will probably be heard in December.

Should the contest be renewed at the end of a year, some interesting developments may be expected.

TAX NOTICE.

I have visited every township in the county after due notice of time and place, for the purpose of collecting taxes as the law requires. I notify tax payers that I will (positively) on November 15th begin to levy and advertise property for sale for taxes.

Very Respectfully,

DR. G. C. USGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
