

Daily Concord Standard.

Vol. XII.—No. 1.

CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1895.

WHOLE NO. 1,350

SILVERWARE!

Elegant Bridal presents and brilliant presents in Sterling and Plate. GNYX TABLES AND LAMPS. Five o'clock tea kettles. Lock Bracelets, Diamond Rings, Watches and Jewelry. Call to see us and we will show you the most complete lines of these goods that have ever been carried in Concord, and they are cheap.

J. J. & J. F. YORKE.

As Arranged.

The programme as arranged for the concert to be given at Armory Hall tonight by the ladies of the Presbyterian church is as follows: Quartette—Mrs. H I Woodhouse, Miss Rose Harris, Messrs D F Summey and R L Keesler.

Vocal Solo—Mr. D F Summey.
Piano Solo—Mrs. W R Harris.
Vocal Solo—Miss Lilly Patterson.
Vocal Solo—Mr. D F Summey.
Trio, Vocal—Mrs. M H Caldwell, Misses Harris and Patterson.
Vocal Solo—Miss Rose Harris.
Piano Solo—Miss Mary Reed.
Vocal Solo—Mr. A E Lentz.
Piano and Violin—Dr. J F Reed and Miss Mary Reed.
Vocal Solo—Mr. D F Summey.
Quartette—Messrs Keesler, Summey, Lentz and Barrow.

Tableaux by the beautiful young ladies of the city will be a special feature of this evening's entertainment. There will be stationary too, which will interest every one.

Doors will open at 7:30, and the curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock.
Admission 25 cents. No reserved seats. Children 10 cents.

Mr. Cannon Talks of Concord.

Charlotte News: Mr. Jas. Cannon, one of the progressive mill men of Concord, was in town today en route to Atlanta. In a talk with a News reporter, he said that Concord is still growing at a rate that will surprise the people. "We are fast approaching the 6,000 notch in population," said Mr. Cannon, "and will soon be able to show that number of people." Mr. Cannon says that the mills there, new and old, are doing a prosperous business and that upon the whole, Concord never before had so bright an outlook.

Why He Stopped His Paper.

A recent subscriber to a certain newspaper writes to the editor to stop his paper, and makes this explanation:

"I think people ought to spend their money for papers mi daddy didn't and everybody said he was the intelligentest man in the kentry and had the smartest family of bois that ever dug taters."

$25 Reward

For any case of Itch—or Eczema—that I can not cure. Come at once and get well. NO CURE NO PAY.
OLD DR. ODAM,
Morris House, Concord, N. C.
P. S. Itch cured in five days.

Garrison-Coltrane.

The autumn wedding at Central Methodist church Wednesday night was a lovely one, indeed, when Mr. David A Garrison, of Bessemer City, was married to Miss Juanita Coltrane, a most excellent and accomplished young lady of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D B Coltrane.

The decorations were gorgeous and with great effect. On either side of the chancel there stood an arch of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. At the last stroke of the clock as it tolled the hour of 9, the ushers, Messrs. J F Yorke and C E Alexander marched up the right aisle, crossed to the left and stationed themselves on the furthest side of the left aisle and were followed by Dr. Frazier and Mr. A B Correll, who stood in the right aisle. Preceding the groom and best man, Mr. O P Moore, of Bessemer City, were the flower girls and boys, Master Arthur Odell and little Miss Mary Kimmons who walked up the right aisle, crossed to the left and passed to the center arch, standing at the left, and at the same time Master Martin Luther Cannon with little Miss Jennie Coltrane faced them at the right. Next came Miss Chandler, the maid of honor, carrying a large bouquet of pure white flowers in her left hand, marched majestically up the aisle and stood to the left of the groom and best man at the altar. Miss Chandler wore a beautiful gown of light tan, trimmed in brown velvet, with large buttons and puff sleeves. Miss Coltrane, the bride, came next leaning on the arm of her father, marching straight up the aisle to the altar, where the father presented Miss Juanita to Dr. Garrison, after which Rev. R H Parker, in a beautiful and impressive ceremony made them man and wife. The bride carried in her hand a bunch of white flowers, and wore a mingled grey traveling gown, trimmed in garnet velvet, with a becoming bonnet, with flowers and tips. The arch 'neath which stood the blushing bride and stately groom, was of a beautiful design, consisting of evergreens and white chrysanthemums, the back ground to which was a heavy circle of variegated autumn leaves. Miss Nannie Alexander presided at the piano, and rendered Mendelssohn's march faultlessly.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom accompanied by Miss Chandler and Mr. Moore, left for Bessemer City, their future home. Dr. and Mrs. Garrison were recipients of many lovely and costly presents.

The Chain Gang.
On December 1st Mr. H C Lefler will take charge of the chain gang. Mr. H McNamara will be road boss and Mr. Ed. Litaker and ——— will be guards.

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It affects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at Fetzer's drug store.

DR. SHIREY PARALYZED.

Druggist Moore Moves—Kilgo Attracting Attention—Something Like Grip.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C., Nov. 6.—Last Monday evening Dr. J D Shirey, president of the North Carolina College was partially paralyzed on his right side. The paralysis seems to be mostly in his right arm and face. His speech and mind are somewhat affected. There has been some improvement in his condition, and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. A W Moose has been busy for several days moving his stock of goods into his new store. When he has everything arranged it will be a nice place to visit.

Mr. W G Barringer brought Kilgo, his thorough bred colt, down town today. Those who saw the colt when Mr. Barringer bought him, would not now recognize him. He will, when grown, be a beautiful animal, and Mr. Barringer is, of course, proud of him.

A good many people are afflicted with bad colds, accompanied with fever. We hope it is not a return of the "grip."

Don't Forget the Baltimore Bargain House.

It will be only a few days now until the Baltimore Bargain House will be ready to serve the public. Owing to the slow progress of freight traffic they were compelled to postpone their opening, and all those who contemplate purchasing clothing, shoes, hats, furnishings, etc., would do well to wait for the Bargain House opening.

Branching Out.

Mr J T Pounds is spreading out his furniture business. His stock and trade began increasing at such a rate that he found it necessary to move into larger quarters.

He now occupies one of the large rooms under the Morris House. Besides his own manufacture, he keeps in stock a full line of all kinds of furniture and a line of coffins and caskets. He will be pleased to have the public call.

Who is "Y. T. Crowell"?

The special collector of the Charlotte Observer spent several days in Concord. He writes a letter about us and gets some things correct. He puts Mr. G T Crowell down as "Y T Crowell" and says he's "a big farmer." Great Goodness! Mr. Crowell is no more of a farmer than Evangelist Fife, but he can beat him raising fine hogs and running a roller mill. Let Mr. Bryant come back and lower his sight. We all appreciate what he did do, but we must protest having our genial Giles Crowell, the Fenix Flour man, put down as a farmer.

Saw a Convict.

About 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night, Mr. Brown at the Cabarrus mills, telephoned to Chief Boger that a convict had been seen on the dummy line in rear of the mills. Both policemen ventured in the darkness for a hunt, but their efforts revealed nothing and no convict was brought to sight. The chief says he thinks it was one Tom Cannady, a trusty, who occasionally sneaks away from the gang and comes to town. Cannady's wife lives near the depot and it is reasonable to believe that it was him who was seen last night.

Moncure-Pemberton

Mr. William A Moncure and Miss Carrie Pemberton were married at the Methodist church in this place this evening at 8 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R M Taylor, of the Western North Carolina Conference. The bride wore white brocaded satin with orange blossoms. The groom wore a full dress suit, conventional black. Attendants were Misses Aura Hearne, Pat Ross, Pattie Shankle and Jennie Freeman, Albemarle, N. C.; Miss Wina Marshall, Wadesboro; Miss Ina Smitherman, Troy; and Miss Mary Deberry, Lilesville. Messrs. W J Swink, Jos. Klutts, R E Austin, of Albemarle, and Messrs. Fred Hargraye and Crawford D Bennett, Wadesboro.

Mrs. J P Cook, of Concord, played the wedding march. The church was crowded with the many friends of the bride and groom, from Albemarle and vicinity.

After the marriage a wedding supper was served to a number of invited friends and relations, at the home of the bride's parents, Major and Mrs. Pemberton.

The bride received a great many beautiful and costly presents, notably a beautiful snuff box inlaid with gold, the gift of the Misses Kron, of Ottoway Hill. It was owned and used by Augustus Dillamoth, their greatuncle, who was a soldier under the command of Kochambau, and fought in the battle of Yorktown in 1781. Other presents noticed were several gold nuggets from the mines in the vicinity.

The party will take the morning train for the home of the groom's parents, Palmouth, Va., and the North.

Albemarle, N. C., Nov. 6.

Children Taught to Deceive.

Frank Alman is the name of the man that lives in Dr. Lilly's house on Spring street, and who is the father of several little girls who are sent out upon the streets to beg pennies, food, etc., and to obtain things dishonestly. Recently this man sent his children to the store of Mr. D M Corzine, near the depot, and obtained a quantity of flour, meat, tobacco and chewing gum on the account of Mr. Henry Wise, an employee at the bleachery. The deception worked all right and the goods were gotten on several occasions until Tuesday night last, when it was discovered by Mr. Corzine that his creditor was not Mr. Wise, but this man Alman. When Alman was seen on Wednesday morning, regarding the matter, he confessed that he had sent the children for the goods, but unconcernedly stated that he would pay for them on Saturday, when if not done, papers will be taken out for Alman.

The Patterson-Morehead Cards.

Most handsomely engraved cards of invitation to the marriage of Mr. Rufus Lenoir Patterson and Miss Margaret Morehead, of Durham, have been received in the city. This interesting event occurs at high noon, November 21st in the Presbyterian church, of Durham.

For Rent.

The store room, next to Dove & Bost, now occupied by Sims & Alexander, is for rent. It is 22x75, with good basement. Possession given 1st January, 1896. Apply to J. DOVE.

DUKE CIGARETTES

High Grade Tobacco AND ABSOLUTELY PURE

Professional Cards.

J. M. ARCHEY, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon.

Concord, N. C.

OFFICE: ST. CLOUD ANNEX

JNO. R. ERWIN, C. A. MISENHEIMER
ERWIN & MISENHEIMER

Physicians and Surgeons

Office No. 3. Harty building, opposite 2nd Presbyterian church Charlotte, N. C.

FIRE INSURANCE.

When in need of Fire Insurance, call and see us, or write. We represent only first-class Home and Foreign companies.

Respectfully,
WOODHOUSE & HARRIS.

Odell Manufacturing Co.,

MANUFACTURERS OF

FINE GINGHAMS

ROUTING CLOTHS,

PLAIDS, SHEETING

AND SALT BAGS

—O—

DEALERS IN General

Merchandise.

—O—

BUYERS OF

Country Produce

of all Kind

— AND —

Four-Foot wood always wanted — best prices for same. We invite an inspection of all the goods we Manufacture.

Odell Manufacturing Co.