FETZER'S DRUG STORE.

A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.
picked up and put in shape by our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

It was a heavy frost of Tuesday night.
Huyler's fine candies, fresh every week, at Dove & Bost's.
New rails are being placed on the side track at the depot. This has been much needed for a long time.

Robert McRea, an enterprising colored citizen, is building a small store room on his lot on Prospect street.

Mr. J P Hornbuckle is having built a new barn. It is being erected on the site of the one recently destroyed by fire.

Rev. J M Wheary, D. D., of Mooresville, will preach in the Presbyterian church tonight. The public cordially invited.

The meeting at Central Methodist church is full of interest. Services will begin tonight at 7 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend.

Dr. W H Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Concord at the St. Cloud on Friday, November 29. His practice is limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat.

Mr. H C Morria died at Forest Hill Tuesday night, of consumption. He was about 60 years of age and had been in bad health for some time.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D. C. Farr's at Forest Hill.

Thoughts uppermost in the minds of many is whether the authorities will exclude the hog pens next year, or allow them to become obnoxious under our noses as during the past summer.

Riley Britt, a white convict sent here from Montgomery county, was brought in from camp this morning and placed in jail. He has been sick for several days, but not seriously so.

Mr. J C Neal, of the Codale creek section, gave us a pleasant call. He reports Mr. Victor Johnson, a young married man of his neighborhood, as recovering from a very severe attack of typhoid fever.

Mr. L B Etheridge, who for some months has been clerking for Mr. D P Dayvault, has, by consent of his employer, severed his connection with the store to accept a scholarship tendered him by the officers of Newberry College. THE STANDARD regrets to see Mr. Etheridge leave, but his ambition for a complete education is laudable. Success to him.

Many people, when a little constipated, make the mistake of using saline or other drastic purgatives. All that is needed is a mild dose of Ayer's Pills to restore the regular movement of the bowels, and nature will do the rest. They keep the system in perfect order.

Rev. M G G Scherer left on the 10:27 train for Charlotte where on Thursday he officiates at the marriage of Miss Bessie Bowman, daughter of Rev. Dr. W S Bowman, pastor of St. Marks Lutheran church. The ceremony will take place in the church.

"Turn the rascals out"—the familiar party-cry—may be applied to microbes as well as to men. The germ of disease that lurk in the blood are "turned out" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla as effectually as the old postmasters are displaced by the new administration.

Few people take as much interest in pleasing the public as does Mr. John K. Patterson, who is always up to date in the grocery line. He has just received a fresh lot of Heckler's Backwheat, macaroni, ginger snaps, pretzels, cakes, crackers, figs, dates, nuts, raisins, cocoanuts, plain and fancy candies, lemons, apples, oranges, canned hams, leaf and country lard, cottage cheese, the finest ever brought to the city, an assortment of molasses, and in fact everything that is found in a well regulated and first-class grocery store.

The Case of Mrs. Early.

Mrs. Ellen C Early, who was imprisoned Saturday a week ago for contempt of court in refusing to obey an order of the clerk, was released last Saturday, she having agreed to make terms. She surrendered the assets of the estate of her son, R L Early, deceased, to Dr. W F Obenault and Mr. P A Poston, who qualified as administrators of the estate, and gave the administrators a mortgage to secure the $2,500 which she had received from the railroad company on account of her son's death.

In the report of this case in last Tuesday's Landmark there was an error which was made unwittingly. It was stated that the railroad company paid Mrs. Early $2,500 on account of the death of her son without suit being brought, and that thus she claimed the money was paid to her individually and not as the administratrix of R L Early. As a matter of fact she did bring suit in Rowan Superior Court against the railroad company as administratrix of her son. The railroad company compromised with her by paying her $2,500 and Judge Norwood, who was holding Rowan court, signed the judgement of compromise and the money was paid her as administratrix. This fact was brought out in the habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Norwood and it being entirely clear that the money belonged to the estate of the deceased and had been paid to Mrs. Early as administratrix, she was remanded to jail. The Raleigh News and Observer and other papers which copied the Landmark's article of last Tuesday, are requested to make note of this correction.—Statesville Landmark.

A Big Law Suit.

Statesville Landmark: A big suit and one that will be hotly contested and will attract much attention was filed in Iredell Superior Court yesterday. It is that of F & H Fries, of Salem, vs. Wallace Bros., B F Long, assignee, and the Wallace Bros' Company. The Messrs. Fries, who are creditors of the late firm of Wallace Bros., will seek to set aside the assignment on the ground of fraud, alleging that the firm failed to make a clean surrender of its property, and charging that assets were hypothecated with friends in the North.

The plaintiff's attorneys are Messrs. R B McLaughlin, and Watson & Buxton, of Winston. Dr. J Lowenstein, also a creditor of the Wallaces, will join with the Messrs. Fries in this action. His attorneys are Messrs. McLaughlin and L C Caldwell, and Judge Montgomery, of Concord.

The case will be hotly contested and a large array of legal talent will be engaged.

Touching the Button.

Editor Cook, of THE CONCORD STANDARD, complains that a new umbrella has been stolen from him. That's bad, but where did he get that umbrella?—Statesville Landmark.

[All I have to do is to touch the button to this gay and festive sheet and all these things, such as umbrellas, overshoes, suspenders garters and overdue subscriptions are added unto me.]

Cost Him $5.00 to See the Bears Perform.

Henry Shinn, one of the many little negro boys who loiter around the streets, paid dearly for seeing the bears perform this morning. He stepped on the toes of a white boy, Douglas Austin, who gently pushed him aside, at the instance of which and when the little fellow had his back turned the negro struck him a terrible blow on the back. Shinn was arrested and fined $6.00.

Falls Heir to $5,000,000.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 12.—J Gamings Drexel, of this city, a nephew of the late Anthony Drexel, of Philadelphia, received information today that by the death of an aunt, Mrs. C E Kenilworth, of Brighton, England, he is the heir of an estate valued at about $5,000,000.

Mr. Drexel is twenty-seven years old and during his residence in this city has been in the employ of the business department of a newspaper.
