A SUSPICIOUS CHECK.

And Still More Suspicious Baggage and Outfit.

HENDERSON, N. C., Nov. 9.—Last Wednesday night about 8 o'clock, a stranger walked into the store here of Messrs Leyne & Brown and represented himself to be an agent for a Richmond, Va., building and loan company. He bought a few things and gave a certified check for $10 on the Third National Bank, of Cincinnati, O., and received therefor $8 in cash and $2 in merchandise. The firm became suspicious that the check was a forgery, and went with a warrant to the Edwards House, where the stranger was registered as H Euer. He had endorsed the check "Charles W Heuer."

His companion was in the same room, and was registered as E Sultz. Both were arrested, and upon their person and baggage being searched there was found in the baggage of Euer a lot of checks and sight drafts. Some were blank and many were filled out, mostly on Western banks. He had also a stenocil for certifying, and a regular outfit for stamping checks. The letters found show that Euer has operated lately in Washington, D. C., and Richmond and Petersburg, Va. He was well equipped with supplies of different building and loan associations. A preliminary trial was held Thursday morning, before S H Allen, Esq., Justice of the Peace, and adjourned for ten days. Both Euer and his companion went to jail in default of bail. They speak English and German fluently.
