Mrs. Mary Huie Dead.

Mrs. Mary Griggs Partee Huie died at the home of Capt. Noah Partee Foard, in Roanoke, Va., early this (Saturday) morning. The funeral services over her body will be conducted by Rev. W. C. Alexander in the First Presbyterian church, Concord, N. C., Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment will take place in the Presbyterian cemetery lot. If by delay in trans this funeral arrangement cannot be carried out exactly, notice of change will be given from various pulpits in town to-morrow morning.

Mrs. Huie was a sister of the late Mrs. Emeline Foard, with whom she spent nearly all the last years of her life. She was married to Mr. Robt. Huie when 17 years of age and has been a widow about 20 years, and died in her 80th year.

This death comes very unexpectedly to our people, many of whom were warm personal friends of the subject of this sketch, and there goes out from the community to the bereaved ones a heartfelt sympathy.

Virginia Dare Property Sold.

At a called meeting of the stockholders of the Concord Female Academy Friday evening, it was decided to sell the piece of property known as the Virginia Dare lot, which was purchased by Messrs W. L. Robbins and W. A. Wilkinson, of Forest Hill, for the consideration of $700.

Miss Addie Cannon, in Augusta.

In Friday morning's Augusta, Ga., Chronicle, we find the following, which concerns one of Concord's most popular young women: Miss Cannon, of North Carolina, is the guest of Miss Garrett on lower Broad street. Miss Cannon is an unusually pretty and attractive young woman and has already made numerous friends. She was among the most popular belles at the Tuesday night german.

Old Soldiers in Town.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon there was a meeting of the survivors of Company F, which was under the command of the late General Rufus Barringer, to decide upon what disposition would be made of the bequest of their lamented commander.

With University Colors.

A large delegation of football enthusiasts went over to Charlotte today, carrying with them gorgeous streamers of white and blue ribbon, the University colors, which bore evidence with whom their hearts and anticipations were. Among the number going, were Professors Holland Thompson, J. F. Shinn, R. L. Keesler and Messrs. C. B. Wagoner, G. B. Caldwell, Harry Markham and J. F. Yorke.

An Accident.

Mr. R. V. Blackwelder came near meeting with a serious accident this (Saturday) morning at Burrage's shop. He was working with the planing machine and accidentally let his hand slip, catching himself just in time to save his entire hand, except a small portion from the tip of the first finger, which was snapped off instantly.

For Rent.

The store room, next to Dove & Bost, now occupied by Sims & Alexander, is for rent. It is 22x75, with good basement. Possession given 1st January, 1896. Apply to J. DOVE.

From Smith's Grove.

With Thanksgiving closely approaching, well may the "gobbling turkey gobble" gobble with a suspicious gobble, with a gobble-like gobble.

A "lady" while visiting at her neighbor's, observed an organ stool sitting apart from the organ. Returning home elated, she accosted her husband thus: "Old man, you're no account; neighbors has one of the cutest little stools for his wife to sit on and sew!"

Lately gossip has been fluctuating considerably by reason of the advent of a "marvelous" physician, who canvasses from house to house. He is said to be related to the Indians. We are informed that he has been arrested and brought before the authorities. His predilection for feminine patients seems to be the cause of his apprehension.

One evening two modest young swain escorted two handsome lasses to their home parental domicile. The boys entered the house, purposing to depart in a few minutes. Hardly had they firmly seated themselves when the displeased father entered asserting that his daughters were two juvenile to receive attentions from masculine humanity. His assertion greatly harassed the youngsters, of course. Still eying the boys disapprovingly and esteeming their silence and embarrassment as evincing obstinacy in its fullest development, the old man broke out afresh: "Come with me; I'll show you to your lodging apartment." Being too embarrassed to make it known that their time for departure was already at hand, the boys mechanically obeyed, following and entering the room designated. The old man firmly secured the door; so the boys were kept prisoners until the dawning of the morn. This is not the first time that love's young torch has been suttlesly extinguished by parental intervention. AUGUSTINE.

Cotton Goes Down.

Cotton has been going down, and the market to-day was not at all healthy, the drop having gone below eight cents. At the opening of the market the buyers paid eight cents for the staple, but later, when reports came in of the state of the New York markets, the price declined, and during the remainder of the day 7½ was the prevailing price. The receipts by wagon, up to three o'clock were 90 bales.—Friday's Charlotte News.

[Cotton brought over eight cents here all day. The price was 8.10 to 8.17½ all day. As a cotton market Concord is the best in all this section.]

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by F. B. Fetzer's Druggist.

Took Him to Church.

Sheriff Sims, Thursday night, took "Dr." White, who stands charged with rape, from jail and hid him away. Since then it has been a much mooted question as to where Dr. White was. Many thought that he was kept at Mr. Bill Junker's, but this was found untrue.

He was taken and put in the Sunday School room of the First Presbyterian church and left there for an hour or more by his lone self, when the guards were persuaded to return and keep him company.

Sheriff Sims has done what probably the doctor has not done for some time—had him in church.

When you come to think about it, that is the last place on earth one would expect a prisoner, and one charged with the fiendish crime he is, to be kept in custody.

Delighted With His Trip.

Clerk Jas. Gibson seldom leaves town. He's got into the habit of doing his duty so faithfully and constantly that it takes either an Atlanta Exposition or a trip to Yadkin county to get him out of town.

He and his two sons spent several days in Atlanta at the Exposition. Mr. Gibson was delighted with the exhibits of this country's greatness. He thinks the Exposition all that is claimed for it and does not mince words in speaking of its greatness and attractiveness.

Everybody in this county is glad he went and glad he enjoyed it—he deserved it all.

Called Upon the Police.

A festival was held at Zion hall in rear of Scotia seminary, Friday night and as usual a disturbance was the consequence. At former occasions similar to the one last night the admission fee had been only five cents, but it was raised to ten cents last night, which greatly displeased a number of boys and men, who stood some distance from the door and chunked rocks at it. The police were called upon to quiet them.

Her Composition.

A little girl in Boston wrote a composition on boys. Here it is: "The boy is not an animal, yet they can be heard a considerable distance. When a boy hollows he opens his big mouth like frogs, but girls hold their tongue till they are spoken to, and then they answer respectable and tell just how it was. A boy thinks himself cleyer because he can wade where it is deep, but God made the dry land for every living thing and rested on the seventh day. When the boy grows up he is called a husband, and then he stops wading and stays out nights, but the grew-up girl is a widow and keeps house."
