CONCORD, NOV. 19, 1895.

THIS IS THE STUFF THEY THRIVE ON.

That our readers, and especially those in Cabarrus county, may see what is being written about us in northern papers, we clip the attached article. We preface the article by saying that the author of it is an unmitigated liar. The Morning (N. Y.) Advertiser says editorially:

"We are unable to agree with the esteemed and usually accurate Traveler, of Boston, when it says that the crime of lynching negroes in the South is due primarily to the faulty administration of the law. Lord Dunraven could not have made a more erroneous statement. It will not be denied that crime often goes unpunished in the South, even when it is brought into court, but there never was a time when the utmost rigor of the law was not applied to the negro, and more especially if accused of a crime against the chastity of a white woman. The Traveler, though it takes the wings of morning and scouring the whole South for evidence, will not find one case where a negro brought to trial for this crime has not received the full penalty of the law. It will, however, find many instances where black men have been accused; have been hunted down by the furious mob; have alleged to have confessed and have been hanged or shot to death. And after the "execution" it has been found that the wrong "nigger" was killed! There is no justification for the barbarous hanging, shooting and burning of negroes in the South, nor is it just to excuse these atrocities on the plea that the law is not rigorously applied to offenders. The disgraceful fact is that the offender rarely lives to get into court. Once in a while he gets into jail; but that only makes it easier for the mob to find him, and hastens his end."

Fritchard Not Governor.

HARRISBURG, N. C., Nov 18—Mr. J. S. Ross left for the Exposition last Thursday. He will return via Morristown, Chattanooga, Ashville and Salisbury.

Miss Lula Irvin, of Newell's, and Miss Rosa Irvin, of Fort Mills are visiting the Misses Caldwells.

Gen. Morrison and Maj. Jim Harris went out calling on the girls last Friday night; it is rumored that the general is getting tired of single life.

Mr. Jay Harris left for Fort Mill Saturday night.

One of our most prominent Pops in an argument a few days ago called on one of Rocky River's prettiest girls to prove that Pritchard was Governor of North Carolina. He was greatly surprised to know that North Carolina had a Democratic Governor.

Mr. Will Kepler and H. J. Alexander left for Charlotte Saturday night where they spent Sunday.

Mr. Spears returned from Atlanta Friday.

We understand the young ladies of Harrisburg have hired a gray mule for two weeks for one of our popular young men to make his calls. He says he does not think he will be able to get around in two weeks.

Prof. Osborne returned from Atlanta Sunday night.

Bringing Up the Rear.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STANDARD: As I never was fast enough to present the first cotton blossom to THE STANDARD in the summer, I thought I would be slow enough to bring the last one in the fall. My cotton is growing and blooming.

We have had but little frost yet. It seems that my farm is more elevated than any in the neighborhood, I think that accounts for it. Jack Frost seldom visits us until late in the fall, and in spring bids us an early adieu. J. CHARLIE FINK.

Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 18.

[Mr. Fink sent us blooms and leaves—glorious climate.]

OVERWORK INDUCED Nervous Prostration Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.
