RELIGIOUS BIGOTRY.

The London Christian World relates an instance of religious bigotry which we believe would be impossible in this country.

A lady in a little town near Norfolk who happened to be a congregationalist visited a sick girl several times and ministered to her needs. One day the girl's mother said to this kindhearted friend: "I am obliged to ask you not to come again, for the rector is so angry at your calling."

The same ecclesiastic was recently asked to attend a meeting of the Bible Society, an institution in which all Protestant denominations cooperate. He promptly declined the invitation on the ground that if he went "some little Baptist minister might stand on the platform and call him brother."

It would be almost impossible to find in this country a minister of any creed who would be guilty of such meanness as was shown by this Pharisee.

The feeling between the woman's religious denominations in this country was never before so cordial as it is now. Ours is a land of religious liberty and our people respect the earnest adherents of every religious creed. The man who believes that his own church is the only way to salvation has in him very little of the spirit of Christ.—Atlanta Journal.

Had Judge Schenck not been defeated for a directorship in the N. C. Railroad, would he be now raising a howl against the release of the road? Then again, he's no longer the Southern's attorney! It all depends how you hit a bull, whether he bellows or not.

It's mighty hard to believe the report that comes out from Winston to the effect that Bill Fife's meeting yanked 900 from the burning coals. If this be true, then the churches and the ministers there have not been doing their duty. And all this after Sam Jones has been combing the hair of Winston morals.

EMBEZZLER BROUGHT BACK.

James Morgan, Defaulting Treasurer of the Colored Masons, Now in Raleigh Jail.

Raleigh Observer: James Mason, the Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Colored Masons in this State, some three years ago defaulted for $533. He lived in Oberlin and was as well thought of as any negro in the community.

He ran away with the money to Pennsylvania where for most of the three years he has lived. He prospered in his new home, and won the congrdence of his Northern neighbors. A short while ago he moved to Asbury Park, N. J., where he worked at the carpenters trade.

Three weeks ago he was located by Deputy Sheriff Brooks. Last Friday the deputy left Raleigh for New Jersey with a requisition from Governor Carr in his pocket, and Sunday afternoon he arrived with him.

At the January term of the court 1894, the grand jury found a true bill against Morgan. He will be tried at the January term, 1896. It is understood that Argo and Snow have been retained by Morgan as his attorneys.

Nervous Prostration Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.
