A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.
picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Corrells have a change in their advertisement.

Mr. H P Torrence is clerking at Lowe & Son.

Onion planting is going on in various parts of the city.

Oil cans, lard cans, milk cans and tin cans at W J Hill's. Open at night.

The warehouse of Mr. Joe Fitzgerald was destroyed by fire at Linwood Tuesday night.

The Fife meeting closed in Winston Tuesday morning. There were 150 professions of faith Sunday and Monday.

Dr. W H Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Concord at the St. Cloud on Friday, November 29. His practice is limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat.

No. 35, southbound passenger train, went down in two sections last night. The regular mail train was five hours late.

Cake pans, pie pans, stew pans, dust pans, milk pans and tin pans at W J Hill's. Open at night.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill.

Mr. H McNamara has resigned his position with the Webb tombstone Company to prepare for his new work, supervising the road work by the chain gang.

The time has come when a man cannot afford to let such bargains pass as Cannons & Fetzer are offering in clothing. See their advertisement on first page.

The decorations at the First Presbyterian church are magnificent, indeed. Everything is in perfect readiness for the brilliant wedding, which will take place tonight at 6:30 o'clock.

Tuesday afternoon the tackle rope that conducts the mortar buckets to the top of the smoke stack at Cannons factory, broke. Fortunately it was suspended so high that it gave those working underneath it ample time to get out of its way.

A Mr. Harkey, from near Mt. Pleasant, was so unfortunate in losing $30 from his pocket somewhere on the street. He had sold cotton. He did not discover his loss until he visited the Fenix Roller Mills and the bleachery.

The demand for Ayer's Hair Vigor in such widely-separated regions as South America, Spain, Australia, and India has kept pace with the home consumption, which goes to show that these people know a good thing when they try it.

Some time during Tuesday night the taffy tent was blown down, which was near the sidewalk. Although a small concern it is to be regretted that there has been a business fall. No material damage was done, however.

Merchants are doing a good business, especially those who advertise through THE STANDARD. Cotton is bringing only 8 cents to-day (Wednesday), but there is a similar reduction in the price of goods, as will be attested by our advertisers.

You may eat cheap food and not be seriously hurt by it; but you cannot take cheap medicines without positive injury. If you use any substitute for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, you do so at the peril of your health, perhaps of your life. Insist on having Ayer's, and no other.

Mr. James H Petty, of Candor, Montgomery county, is in the city. He is desirous of locating here and will do so if a dwelling house can be secured. It is his intention to open a general mercantile business. It is hoped Mr. Petty can be accommodated and that we will get him as a citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. J M Odell and Mr. and Mrs. W R Odell left this morning for Durham, to attend the marriage of Mr. Rufus Patterson to Miss Morehead, which takes place tomorrow night. Mr. and Mrs. W H Braason, returning to Durham from Atlanta, and Rev. Dr. Creasy, of Charlotte, joined them, the same occasion calling them Durhamward.

Mrs. Mary Stewart, of Hangebow, China, one of the best known and most interesting missionaries of the Presbyterian church will visit Mrs. Dr. Grier at Rocky River church next week. She will speak to the ladies of the congregation on Wednesday or Thursday afternoon at the church and will no doubt have a large crowd to hear her.

Juveniles Jubilant.
On to-morrow (Thursday) night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H M Barrow, the little folks composing the Juvenile Missionary Society of Forest Hill Methodist church, will entertain friends of the society. Mitz will make candy for the occasion, and the Juveniles peddle it. The little ones are jubilant with anticipation on account of this pleasant event, and it is hoped the older ones will encourage them with a good patronage.

Put the Fires Out.
Campers had a pretty tough time of it during Tuesday night. About 11 o'clock, the wind rose to such an extent that it was necessary for the safety of property to put out their fires, as sparks were flying in all directions with fire.

Nail in His Foot.
Mr. Charles M Suther is seriously wounded. Monday afternoon he ran a long, wire nail into his foot, which is the cause of intense pain and suffering. His foot is terribly swollen. It is fortunate the nail was not a rusty one.

Notes From the Organ.
Miss Dora Boat who is attending school in Mt. Pleasant was at home last Sunday.
There will be a missionary sale at Organ church on Saturday before the second Sunday in December.
Mrs. Katie Rymer has been laid up with a sore foot; several weeks ago she tramped on a nail, at first she paid but little attention to it, but it became inflamed and swollen to such an extent that Dr. Burleyson was called, he lanced the foot three different times, while it is some better it is by no means well.

The Patterson-Morehead Nuptials.

Raleigh Observer: All the talk in Durham social circles is of the approaching Patterson-Morehead nuptials. This evening Mr. R L Patterson tenders a complimentary get man to the visitors to the wedding. This is to be held in the Hotel Carolina, and from all indications will be one of the most elaborate social functions the city has seen. Mr. Patterson will be married to Miss Morehead at high noon tomorrow (Thursday.)

Gladstone News.

Hope you are well and collecting much of the old score and progressing well in securing new subscribers; we are always glad to get THE STANDARD and hope its life will be long, useful and one of joy and peace.

We have but little news to report at present but happy to say our community is in good health, generally speaking.

LO Ritchie has moved into his new house at Copal Grove, and has had one accession to his family—it's a boy—good news for the Democratic party; the generation is coming on which must rule if we ever can expect good government.

Mr. Will Bringle and wife have been in Stanly visiting relatives. He lives at Woodside.

Up to date no possums have been seen or eaten at Gladstone this season, and we fear will not be; they are hard to find because there are none to find.

There was a cave in at the Culp mine last week. Samuel Culp, Jr., came near losing his life by the fall of a large rock. He escaped with a few bruises.

If you don't see a man for two weeks you can just say he has gone to Concord's cotton mills. Still they go. RUMPLE.

Oak Grove Items.

There will be a week's preaching at Grace Reformed church, commencing on Wednesday the 27th. Sermon in the morning, Bible study in the afternoon.

There will be a week's service at "Bear Creek" beginning with the annual Foreign Missionary sale, which is on Saturday before the second Sabbath in December.

The annual Foreign Missionary sale at "Lower Stone" will be on the 30th of this month. Everybody is invited. P. B.
