Concord, N. C.

CONCORD, NOV. 23, 1895.

The coming lecture, by the Professor of Mooresville, on "Love, Courtship and Marriage" is quite seasonable. It is just at the threshold of leap year. If there be any, who are about to despair in this mysterious crusade for other orders of living, this coming lecture holds out encouragement and hopes—hopes that may fructify ere the leap year finishes. Last chance!

THE STANDARD publishes in another column a communication on "money," from another standpoint to that of Sayigny. "Whit" is our regular neighborhood news correspondent and THE STANDARD admits him to full fellowship in our columns. Of course, it is understood that no editor is responsible for the views of correspondents. Selah!

It will be observed that Mayor Morrison is still filling the office of mayor of Concord, notwithstanding the Constitution of North Carolina has been unfolded and waved in his face. This one-legged soldier is not afraid—he was sheriff four years and in all that time neither owned nor carried a pistol—not so much as a billet. Long live the mayor.

THE STANDARD introduces its readers to an article by Prof. J. Noon Ingram, written for the Northwestern Farmer. P. of, Ingram is of Virginia, Australia, California, New Jersey, Cabarrus county.

Some fellow who has been experimenting says a beetle can draw twenty times its own weight. However true that may be the mustard plaster must have a front seat in this experiment.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says that it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Trial bottles at Fetzler's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Held Up by Females.

Mr. J. A. Ware, traveling salesman for Helme's snuff, was in the city last night and gave us the particulars of a recent exciting adventure of a brother knight of the grip, a

Mr. Webb, who sells Bowers snuff. Mr. Webb was riding out into a country district just beyond Wilkesboro when he suddenly came face to face with two Winchester rifles and a pair of shrill voices echoed and re-echoed among the hills "Hands up." "Who are you?" they asked of Mr. Webb. With his teeth playing a prettily lively march and his knees growing weaker each second he finally managed to ejaculate, "a snuff drummer." He was caused to show up his credentials and after passing the examination to the satisfaction of the women he was permitted to go the even tenor of his way. The women were the wives of moonshiners and had Mr. Webb been a revenue officer his life would not have been worth a farthing to him. As it is he is yet congratulating himself on his escape.—Salisbury World.

Mirror of a Town's Doing.

The newspapers of a town are its looking glasses. It is here you see yourselves as others see you. You smile on them, and they smile back at you; you frown on them and you are repaid in kind. They are the reflex of a town. If the town is doing business the newspapers will show it in their advertising columns. If the merchants are spiritless, shiftless fellows, whose stores are jumbles of junk and jam, the newspapers will show it by the lack of space they take. If you want the world to know that you have a live town, you can only let it be known through its newspaper.—Perham (Min.) Bulletin.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Everything Plentiful in Stanly.

Dr. S. J. Montgomery went to Millingsport, Stanly county, on Friday, to assist Dr. Whitley in performing an operation in way of removing and abscess from the neck of Mr. Charles Robbins, once a clerk at D. P. Dayvault's, in this city, but now a merchant of that place.

Dr. Montgomery says a wonderful change has taken place since last he visited that part of the country—good, substantial houses have been built, and every crib and granary is filled with corn, wheat and oats; that the farmers have more now than ever known to have before and good times in general prevail.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of C. Holshouser & Co., composed of C. Holshouser and J. L. Miller, was dissolved by mutual consent on Nov. 1st 1895.

Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.
