FETZER'S DRUG STORE, CONCORD, N. C.

A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Rustling Pencil Pusher.
One month until Christmas.

Forecast for tomorrow: "Showers; colder Tuesday evening."

Go to the Graphophone concert at the Amory Hall tonight.

Merchant J M Allen is moving into his newly completed home on East Depot street.

Sousa's band will be at the Amory Hall to-night. It will play the Directorate March.

See the change in Lowe & Son's add. Only five weeks to take advantage of their slaughter sale.

You can buy candy receipts this week at the tent next to the post-office. Will be here until Saturday.

The eleven months old child of Mr. Jackson Best, of No. 10 township, died this morning. It had been wasting and puny for several months.

Gray enameled stew pans, bread pans, dish pans, cake pans, coffee pots, etc., at W J Hill's. Open at night.

Read the interesting advertisement of Fetzer's Drug Store. You will profit by it.

Cotton is up a few points to-day. Good cotton brought 84 cents and the farmers are again beginning to smile and look happy.

Cooking stoves, heating stoves, wood stoves, coal stoves, gasoline stoves, oil stoves, lamp stoves at W J Hill's. Open at night.

Mary Branig, a colored dame of the city, was arrested and placed in jail Sunday upon a charge of keeping a disorderly house.

Mr. Ed Johnson and Miss L E Misenheimer were married last Thursday at the home of the bride's mother. Both of No 2.

Gov. Carr has notified THE STANDARD to rest itself on Thanksgiving Day, and it will obey the commands of the Governor.

Dr. W H Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Concord at the St. Cloud on Friday, November 29. His practice is limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat.

Mrs. Laura Jane Smith, a widow lady of Forest Hill, died Saturday night and was buried Sunday. She was 40 years of age. Rev. J Simpson conducted the funeral services.

A cup of muddy coffee is not wholesome, neither is a bottle of muddy medicine. One way to know a reliable and skillfully-prepared blood-purifier is by its freedom from sediment. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is always bright and sparkling, because it is an extract and not a decoction.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Located at the place opposite D O Furr's at Forest Hill.

During the funeral discourse at the late residence of Col. Long, Sunday evening, Mr. Matthew Safrir, coming too warm, fainted and had to be carried out. He soon revived.

Mr. J M Dove, of Caldwell, Mecklenburg county, and son of Mr. Jacob Dove, of Concord, spent Sunday with his father. He is, besides farming, running a fine roller mill.

In the absence of Prof. R L Keesler and Mrs. R S Harris Sunday, Miss Cathcart, a music teacher at Scotia seminary, presided as organist at the First Presbyterian church. The music at night was exceptionally fine.

"Escaped being a confirmed dyspeptic by taking Ayer's Pills in time." This is the experience of many. Ayer's Pills, whether as an after-dinner pill or as a remedy for liver complaint, indigestion, flatulency, water brash, and nausea, are invaluable.

Paul Smith, of London, is walking on a $5,000 wager, will probably reach Raleigh by Monday. He started from Petersburg, Va., headed for this point today. By the terms of the wager Smith is to tramp to every capital in the United States and Territories, and is to accomplish the trip within six years. He has already been to Hartford, Trenton, Dover, Annapolis, Washington and Richmond.—Saturday's Raleigh Observer.

Mr. Henry C. Lentz, of Zeb, is not only a good merchant and competent officer—he is the postmaster at his place—but he is also somewhat of a farmer, too. This year with one horse he has made three bales of cotton, 450 bushels of corn and 86 bushels of wheat, taking no account of minor crops. If this isn't a good showing for a small, one-horse farmer then we would like to know one.—Salisbury Herald. [Our people will remember Mr. Lentz. He was associated several months with Mr Jno. K Patterson, of Concord.]

Home From Mexico.

Mr. A Jones Yorke got in Saturday night from an extended tour through the West. He brought with him quite a number of curiosities from Mexico, some of which he exhibited to a number of friends. While in Mexico he witnessed the famous and interesting bull fight, and says the women in that country all go bareheaded. He enjoyed his trip very much.

To Go to Conference.

Reidsville will have the Methodists with them this week, as the Western North Carolina Conference convenes at that place on Wednesday. Rev. W H L McLaurin will leave this evening and will be followed tomorrow morning by Revs. R H Parker, of Central, M A Smith, of Forest Hill, and J R Moose, of Cannonville.

Up Comes the Dummy Line.

It is no joke this time. The dummy line, which has been the cause of considerable and lots of unnecessary grumbling, is being taken up. William Lilly went to work on the upper end of the track this afternoon, having under him a large force of hands.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

There will be Union Thanksgiving services on Thursday, at 11 o'clock. Services will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. M G G Scherer preaching. At night, 7 o'clock, there will be services in St. James Lutheran church, sermon by Rev. W C Alexander. The public are cordially invited to these Thanksgiving services.
