A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hunting Pencil Pusher.

Look out for the cold wave, which is predicted for tomorrow.

A passenger train passed here yesterday bearing twenty-two coaches. This was a long string.

Odell mill No. 4 had to shut down for a few hours Monday afternoon and to-day on account of a "hot box."

Gray enameled stew pans, bread pans, dish pans, cake pans, coffee pots, etc., at W J Hill's. Open at night.

Cotton in Salisbury, Monday, brought 8 cents; in Concord it brought 8 1/2. Stick a pin here.

Despite the rain and mud, several young men shouldered their guns, called their dogs and went out for a hunt to-day.

Cooking stoves, heating stoves, wood stoves, coal stoves, gasoline stoves, oil stoves, lamp stoves at W J Hill's. Open at night.

Col. Jno. R Erwin has been appointed county commissioner for Mecklenburg, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thos. Grier.

Deputy Sheriff John S Hill is in Charlotte tracing an escaped prisoner. He has him located and will doubtless have his game on his return.

Messrs Frank Cook and J A Jones, warm patrons of the WEEKLY STANDARD, now living in Salisbury, spent Sunday and Monday in the city.

Six bill posters struck town Monday, advertising balloon ascensions for Monday next, December 2, which will take place in or near town.

Dr. W H Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Concord at the St. Cloud on Friday, November 29. His practice is limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat.

"Dr." Burris, of Stanly county, was in the city Monday night. He is now more famous and is much handsomer than the last time he visited this place.

Next Friday night the young ladies, of Room No. 4 of Mount Arcona, will give a reception to a number of invited friends at the residence of Mr. Jno. A Cline.

Mr. W O Russell, of Forest Hill, has returned from China Grove, where he has been to see his sick daughter, Mrs. Henry Calaway, who is critically ill with slow fever.

A cup of muddy coffee is not wholesome, neither is a bottle of muddy medicine. One way to know a reliable and skillfully-prepared blood-purifier is by its freedom from sediment. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is always bright and sparkling, because it is an extract and not a decoction.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill.

Virginia and North Carolina football game, Richmond, Va. Tickets on sale Nov. 27 h and 28 h, final limit Nov. 30 h 1895. Continuous passage in each direction. Fare for round trip $8.45.

THE STANDARD got a very pleasant remembrance from the hands of Mr. O P Black, an old Concord boy, who finds life very dull at his home in Tennessee without the WEEKLY STANDARD.

"I escaped being a confirmed dyspeptic by taking Ayer's Pills in time." This is the experience of many. Ayer's Pills, whether as an after-dinner pill or as a remedy for liver complaint, indigestion, flatulency, water brash, and nausea, are invaluable.

Mr. M B Phifer has returned from his old home in Rowan, where he was called Friday last to attend the sick bed of his mother, who passed away on Saturday. In the loss of this, his dearest earthly friend, he has the tenderest and sincerest sympathy of his numerous friends in this city.

Rev. Boozer, of Burlington, spent Monday night in the city with Rev. T H McCallough. He had been to Atlanta. H L Fowler, of Cannonville, accompanied Mr. Boozer to Burlington, where he will spend several days recreating among old and familiar scenes.

There will be no services at Trinity Reformed church on Thanksgiving Day. The pastor, Rev. B F Davis, will be in Davidson county assisting Rev. J C Leonard in a series of evangelistic services at Calvary church near Thomasville. The Trinity people will attend the union services.

Mr. Corriher Dead.
 Mr. John C Corriher, one of the best business men of Rowan county, died soon Monday morning at his home in China Grove, after a nine-days illness with pneumonia.

Mr. Corriher was a long time a partner of Mr. I Frank Patterson in the mercantile business.

He was about 48 years old, and was a much esteemed gentleman.

The remains were buried to-day (Tuesday) at Mt. Zion Reformed church, the funeral service being conducted by Rev. Dr. Trexler.

China Grove loses one of its best and most enterprising citizens.

A Dull Day.
 All outside work was suspended today, caused by the inclement weather, and the mechanics and day laborers in general put in a day around the merchants' stoves, telling stories, cracking jokes, scaly-barks, chestnuts and roasted peanuts, while the clerks were busy arranging goods for display and convenience in the windows and shelves. The day was an exceedingly dull one, as the low hovering clouds and the heavy rain made the gloom all the more perceptible during the forenoon.

Color Line Drawn.
 A very noticeable incident occurs every day at the home of Merchant John K Patterson's, who is a noted chicken raiser, that has attracted considerable attention. He has a number of chickens, the Black Minorcas, and White Leghorn species. The Minorcas can be seen in a group to themselves and the Leghorns in another part of the yard to themselves. The two breeds roost in trees fifty feet apart and will not mix in eating or scratching together and the most stringent color line is drawn.

Once a Citizen of Charlotte.
 Speaking of Mr. L W Perdue, who was mobbed last Friday morning about 2 o'clock in Alby, Ga., the Charlotte News says:

"The victim of this Georgia mob formerly lived in Charlotte, and kept a store in the stand now occupied by H G Link. He failed in business and moved to Paw Creek township, where he farmed for several years, then he went to Georgia as a school teacher. He married a daughter of Mr. Gray Utley, and was a brother-in-law of Rev. Dr. Burkhead. He was 51 years old."

Normal Girls.
 About eighty-five merry school girls passed through the city this morning en route to Atlanta from the State Normal at Greensboro. Misses Elizabeth and Emily Gibson were among the number, and were joined by Mrs. R E Gibson and Miss Lallah Hill at this place. The party will remain in Atlanta until Saturday night.

Jailed for Assault.
 J H Weidman, a collector for one of the installment furniture houses, was arranged before Esquire D G Maxwell today, on charge of a brutal assault upon Olio Richards, the twelve year old daughter of Mrs. Nancy Richards, who works at the Gingham mills. Weidman found the child alone in the house while her mother was at work in the mill. He was sent to jail in default of a $200 bond.—Charlotte News.
