Will Open a Street and Build Houses.

Messrs. C. A. Dry and J. C. Wadsworth, who recently purchased the old fair grounds, have begun improvements already. A street is being opened up, to run from South Main due west, connecting with Broad street in Chapman town. On this street will be built a row of comfortable dwelling houses. The old floral hall and agricultural buildings will be converted into cottages. Work is going on now.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, aiding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50 cts and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug Store.

A Pretty Wedding.

Dr. J. H. Dreher and Miss Marie A. Schulken, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schulken, all of this city, were happily married last evening at 7 o'clock at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church. The chancel and altar were beautifully adorned with palms, ferns and other potted plants, and notable among the decorations were a lot of rare and lovely cut chrysanthemums of remarkable size, tastefully arranged on the altar. The decorations were after Mr. Will Rehder's best style, and were indeed attractive.

Long before the hour for the ceremony the church was filled with the relatives and friends of the young couple, and when the bridal party entered it was to the strains of a beautiful wedding march played on the organ by Professor Theodore J. Schmidt, his own composition. The ushers, Messrs. Will Rehder, Will Latta, W. A. Vollers and John F. Rulfs, Jr., were the first to proceed up the aisle. Then followed the bridesmaids and groomsmen, Mr. H. E. Bonitz and Miss Lizzie Otten, and Mr. G. H. Haar and Miss Mamie Steljes. The groom entered, leaning on the arm of his brother and best man, Dr. Gus Dreher, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., and next to them came Miss Tillie Schulken, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor. Following the maid of honor was the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. She was stylishly attired in a travelling suit, and carried a bunch of bridal roses in her hand. The bride's maids carried bouquets of pink roses.

After the ceremony had been performed the bridal party retired, while the organ pealed forth, and took carriages for the Carolina Central depot, where Dr. and Mrs. Dreher took the 7:45 p. m., train for his former home at Mt. Pleasant. They will be gone about ten days, and will return and make their home here.

Dr. Dreher is a dental surgeon, and has been a resident of Wilmington about two years, during which time he has made numerous friends, who extend to him and his bride their best wishes for a long and happy life.—Wilmington Messenger.

The oyster supper at Forest Hill by the Ladies Aid Society Thursday night was a great financial success.

Two Children Burned to Death.

Two small children were left alone last Wednesday morning at the home of Ed Foll, colored, who lives on the plantation of Mr. Ransom Blackwelder, five miles east of this city, one or both being in a cradle near the fire, and some sparks are supposed to have popped out and set fire to the bed clothing, burning one child to death and the other one so badly that it died. The house and furniture was saved.

Burned Crates and Coops.

Campers in rear of Dayvault's store burned up quite a number of egg crates and chicken coops Thursday night. Some of the parties were drinking, and after the whiskey died down in them the sneaking cold of a November night made them feel so numb that they were compelled to have fire and these crates and coops were the only fuel available. They were paid for.

A Pretty Front Fence.

It is a fact. The county is to have a pretty front fence of iron—the material is all here and the placing of same will be done next week. A new wood fence will be built on the line with the Reed property and on the avenue leading to Corl's stable the fence will be patched up with the remnants of the one now there. It will be a variety, but nevertheless it will be an improvement over the present condition.

A Delightful Evening.

In honor of Miss Nell Cramer, of Thomasville, and Miss Alice Shemwell, of Lexington, their guests, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Archey gave a 7 o'clock dinner last evening. In attendance were: Dr. Reed, Miss Jennie Smith, J. F. Goodran, Miss Francis Rogers; A. B. Correll, Miss Claude Fisher, A. J. Yorke, W. M. Stuart and John Yorke. The evening was a delightful and the supper an elegant one. The hours were from 6 to 12.

Meet Them Elsewhere.

A remittance from Mr. S. W. Suther, of Texas, to the WEEKLY STANDARD was accompanied by this letter: "As 'possums are ripe now, a dollar into the slot must be very acceptable. Please continue THE STANDARD—I can't do business without it, long may its banner wave—its politics is my sentiments.

"Give my respects to all those that want to know about me, and those that don't want to know I hope to meet in the New Jerusalem."

Who'll Be Responsible.

To THE STANDARD:—I see the irons of the dummy line are being torn up. I understood that the cross ties will be left buried in the streets.

They will not be preserved always and decay will soon, if not already, set in.

If a horse steps into one of these holes (which are sure to follow) and breaks a leg, who'll be responsible? The town, the Dummy Line, or the driver. FRIGHTENED CITIZEN.

Another Useful Man Has Fallen

On the morning of the 25th, just fifteen minutes past twelve o'clock, our beloved neighbor and dear friend, Mr. John C. Corriher, of this place, calmly passed away after an illness of only nine days. He was about forty-six years of age, leaving a wife and two children to mourn their loss. In his death not only his church (which he was very devoted to) sustained an irreparable loss but also our town and surrounding country. In his death I have lost one of my best friends, though I have known him only a little over two years.

The words that now fall from the lips of nearly every one who knew him is: "He was my best friend." He will be badly missed in our little town and especially by the poor as he was always most thoughtful of them. It is hard to give up such a friend but we feel that he is now at rest in that beautiful land "Just over the river," free from all the cares and turmoils of this earthly existence. Though fond of life and its pleasures, he never forgot the woes of others, and always carried sunshine with him wherever he went, scattering many seeds of kindness along the dull, weary pathway of endless toil and futile hopes, the poor and suffering knew only too well. When the grim shadows of death were stealing over him he had no fear, only desiring to live to train his children for usefulness in church and state, but conscious to the last, he manifested the same perfect faith and Christian fortitude that had characterized his beautiful life, and thus he passed away in the full assurance of a blissful rest in the realms of immortality.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says that it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Trial bottles at Fetzer's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A. and M. Do the Guilford Boys.

The match between the football teams of the Agricultural and Mechanical College and Guilford College at Greensboro Thursday resulted in a score of 26 to 0 in favor of the former. Mr. Andrew Grier, of the A. and M. C. team passed through the city en route to his home at Harrisburg and will not return to school until January 1. He says the game was a good one. We learn that he is making a fine record as a footballist.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
