Cotton fell off a few points this morning, but the ruling price was 8 1/2. A few bales were bought at 8.30. Receipts at the platform reached the 200 notch today.

Salisbury is beginning to arrest tramps. This act will end that nuisance. If such were done in Concord, our people might get relief. They were here in droves on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George W Brown and two children have returned from Salisbury, where they dined on Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Verble, Mrs. Brown's grandmother, who celebrated her 90th birthday.

The soft, rich, glassy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. All the assistance that nature requires to make the hair strong, beautiful, and abundant is supplied by this excellent preparation.

About 7 o'clock Thursday night it looked as if there would be some trouble on the streets among the rowdies, both white and black, of the town, which was due to the unusual amount of drunkenness. The festive white and the hilarious black were somewhat curbed, however, by the association of the blue coats, who kept them even more quiet than many expected. Not an arrest was made.

Collections for the Thompson orphanage at the Episcopal church Thursday morning amounted to more than fifty dollars, including clothing, provisions and money.

Misses Connie Oline, Addie Patterson, Ella Walter are in the city from Mont Amena Seminary and are accompanied by Misses Addie Jenny, Margaret Hunter, Roxy Fullenwider and Mattie Miller. These young ladies will entertain a number of friends at the home of Miss Oline tonight.

The numerous cures of rheumatism by the use of the old standard blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, show conclusively that it is an effective remedy, if not indeed the specific, for the most painful and persistent of maladies. What has cured others will also cure you.

J E McCorkle, the well-known phrenologist of North Carolina, has an office across street from, and opposite Court House, where he will give charts and oral delineations of character, with advice as to Disease, Love, Marriage and choice of occupation according to natural developments. People of all ages and sexes are invited to call and be phrenologized, he will make it interesting and profitable to them. Special attention given to children as to education and training. Ten years of practical experience. He has many strong testimonials—too numerous to mention—from distinguished North Carolinians. Give him a call! You'll not regret it. Will be here only a few days.
