A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Commissioners will meet Monday in regular monthly session.

Knife disease is prevalent and hogs are dying by the hundred every day all over the county.

There is danger in delay—why not advertise your Christmas goods through THE STANDARD now.

W J Sides, for a long time pastor of Price Memorial church in this city, has been moved to Monroe.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend, who live near Patterson's mill, died Friday night.

Gray enameled stew pans, bread pans, dish pans, cake pans, coffee pots, etc., at W J H.H.'s. Open at night.

Rev. R. V. Tapscaster is conducting a successful meeting out at White Hall. Rev. W C Alexander preached for him Friday afternoon.

Services will be held in Forest Hill Methodist church tomorrow morning. Further announcements will be made from the pulpit.

Cooking stoves, heating stoves, wood stoves, coal stoves, gasoline stoves, oil stoves, lamp stoves at W J Hill's. Open at night.

Several houses in the north end of the city were entered on Thanksgiving night and the pantries relieved of provisions, prepared and otherwise.

A more perfect fall season could not be wished for and the good farmers are delighted at the well favored prospects for a good stand in small grains.

Concord is a good cotton market as is evidenced by the noted fact that she pays the highest price and that 600 bales, or more, have been marketed here in five days.

With to day Superintendent Geo. F Barnhardt retires from the county chain gang. He will very probably go West at an early day. Mr. H C Lefler succeeds him as "boss."

Messrs. Balla and Misenheimer have completed the masonry work on the 115 foot smoke stack at the Cannon factory. It's top can be observed from almost any part of the city.

A banjo picker struck town Friday night which arrested the campers' as well the town's people's eyes and ears. Music and "stag" dancing was in order in one of the lots and to see how the old men could cut the "pigeon's wing" and dance "chicken in the dough-tray" minus the hoe-cake was a sight never before witnessed by many of the onlookers. It was a night of revelry and unobjectionable fun.

Mr. M L Julian will go to Salisbury tonight to spend Sunday with his family.

Charlotte News: Mr. Harvey A Deal, who was for a long time in the newspaper business in Charlotte and who left here during the reign of Mr. Robert Hayda, for Columbia, is now located in Greenville, S. C.

The soft, rich, glassy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. All the assistance that nature requires to make the hair strong, beautiful, and abundant is supplied by this excellent preparation.

Salisbury Herald: The failure of Baur & Co., of New York, does not affect the Rogers Clothing Company in the least. That firm owned an interest in the business here from its organization until last summer, when they sold out to Mr. B F Rogers and the Messrs. Smoot.

The numerous cures of rheumatism by the use of the old standard blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, show conclusively that it is an effective remedy, if not indeed the specific, for the most painful and persistent of maladies. What has cured others will also cure you.

Work on removing the rails of the defunct dummy line is progressing at a rapid rate, the track being taken up as far from the terminus at Odell's as the Bessemer lot on Main street. The coach will be pulled through town for the last time Monday—not by "Annie," however, but by a number of large Kentucky mules.

Of all the Thanksgiving hunting expeditions only one man out of a party in this county came within ten of bagging a hundred rabbits on that eventful day. One crowd reported forty-two, another sixty-five, but the last but not least fetched ninety-three to the pole. To see an account of this in some foreign paper it would be hard to believe, but as it really happened here at home, no one will question the truth of the statement. And these hunters say it wasn't a good day for rabbits, either.

At Patterson's Hall.

The german at Patterson's Hall Friday night was given complimentary to the visiting young ladies in the city and those who cast their cares to the winds and were enraptured for a time in the sweet music and dancing were:

Miss Nell Cramer, A J Yorke; Miss Alice Shemwell, W W Morris; Miss Mary DeVane, Ed. P Hill; Miss Sallie Erwin, C L Smith; Miss Agnes Moss, Earle Brown; Miss Janie Ervin, W T Powe; Miss Eunice Beache, Ed. Boykin; Miss Jennie Smith, R L Keesler; Miss Esther Ervin, G L Patterson. Stags: F L Smith, C R Montgomery and Ed. Moss. The german was led by J F Yorke and Miss Fannie Rogers. Mesdames E C Beache, M C Dusenbury and Dr. L M Archey were chaperones.

Can't Get Away.

Everyone that comes in from Atlanta says that the crowd is so immense that the railroads can't get the people away within eight or ten hours of the regular scheduled time. South Carolina's representation, Thursday and Friday, it is said, exceeded the ovation of the President by 25,000. On Thursday evening not a loaf of bread could be purchased in that entire city, so says a man that was there and was evidently in search of some.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50c. and $1 At Fetzer's Drug Store.
