THE LYCHING OF PERDUE.

Ribbons Swear Vengeance and Gov. Atkinson Offers $500 Reward.

Public sentiment in Montgomery county, Ga., where the lynching of Prof. Perdue, formerly of Charlotte, occurred several days ago, is becoming stronger each day against the lynchers. Gov. Atkinson has offered a reward of $500 for the first party convicted of being implicated in the lynching of Perdue. A dispatch from Mt. Vernon says: The lynching of Prof. Perdue last Friday night has thrown the people of this county in a state of great excitement. That the act was wanton and barbarous is evidenced by the inhuman treatment and the horrible indignities to which the aged school teacher was subjected. It is learned that the authorities are getting clues implicating several white men and negroes, and are obtaining evidence to bring them before the grand jury, which convenes on December 9th.

A strange circumstance connected with the affair is that during the incarceration of the professor he desired a guard, fearing danger. The request was granted, and a dog was also placed in the jail. It is said that a few days before the lynching the guard and the dog were removed. At any rate, the good people of Montgomery, who abhor mob violence, demand a rigid investigation, and want the perpetrators of the fiendish lynching brought to justice.

The professor's sons say that they are not going to rest until their father's death is avenged.—Charlotte News.

The Year Round

Some Medicines belong to one season and some to another.
DR. KING'S ROYAL GERMETUEN IS IN SEASON ALL THE YEAR ROUND.

IN THE SPRING

It purifies the blood, removes languor and depression, invigorates and exhilarates the whole system.

IN THE SUMMER

It overcomes the relaxation and debility caused by hot weather and corrects bowel troubles that are so prevalent then. Besides, it makes the most delightful and refreshing drink.

IN THE FALL

When malaria "rides on every passing breeze," it is the great preventive and the unfailing cure of troubles resulting from that cause.

IN THE WINTER

It is still needed for curing Colds, Grip, Catarrh, Rheumatism, and the ills that belong to cold seasons.
It does these things, not in a feeble and uncertain way, but with assured and triumphant power.
