A THOROUGH CLEANSING.

It was suggested—The Fence-Jurors for January Superior Court—No More Pasturing.

The commissioners were in session Monday and Tuesday. The first day was principally devoted to regular routine business and hearing complaints by property owners who were assessed double taxes for non-returns and in many cases reasons were offered and considered sufficient excuses. It was as annoying to the county fathers as to the tax-paying kickers.

Upon motion it was ordered that the sheriff give to the clerk of the board a list of all persons who failed to make a return for taxation for the year 1895, and who shall pay on or before the first day of January 1896 all taxes assessed against them and that said clerk hand said list to the solicitor for this district and a copy thereof to the foreman of the next grand jury and that such persons may be prosecuted.

Upon motion, H A Lefler is hereby appointed superintendent of the county chain gang, the board hereby contracting and agreeing to pay the said Lefler the sum of $3 75 per day for the services and duties hereinafter agreed to be performed by him, said sum or salary to be paid subject to the condition hereinafter specified. Said Lefler contracts and agrees, in addition to doing all necessary blacksmithing and superintending the work to be performed on the roads, and at all times to employ a sufficient number of guards, not exceeding four, to prevent the escape of any convicts or persons sentenced to work upon said chain gang, said Lefler to be personally responsible for the payment of salary or compensation of said guards. Said Lefler agrees that in the event the number of convicts shall be decreased so as to justify the employment of a less number of guards than four that the salary or amount of compensation paid for the services of guards dispensed with shall be deducted from the salary of said Lefler; and this contract is made upon condition that if in the event of the escape of a convict there shall be deducted from the salary of said Lefler a sum not exceeding one-half the salary for the month in which said escape occurred. In testimony whereof, upon motion, the chairman of the board was authorized to sign this contract on part of the board, and said Lefler also.

At the second day's session Sheriff Sims explained to the commissioners that the court room was greatly in need of renovation and that with their consent he would go ahead and make a thorough cleansing in order that the inside would be in accord with the outward external fitness of things since we are to have a new court house fence. The matter was discussed pro and con and after considerable deliberation, it was decided not to work on the fence or the court room until it was more positive as to what kind of fence we would have, which will again be brought up at the next meeting for further consideration.

The drawing of the jury for the January term of court then took place and resulted as follows:

FIRST WEEK.
C. I. White, Will E Harris, G W Dry, Thos. W Ridenhour, W H Barnhardt, D S Benfield, H H Blackwelder, James H Johnson, Paul F Widenhouse, W E Litaker,

J E Hamilton, Paul Alexander, P O Dea, J H W Endy, J R McLelland, L. H. White, D M Long, Walter B Black, Cyrus A Snell, Bob Corzine, A J Blackwelder, Addison Crowell, John C Wadsworth, Ed H Johnston, J M Davis, John R Rowland, J Frank Smith, R M Troutman, W F Cannon, E Will Johnston, F A K Smith, J L Patterson, D J Boat, J F Hurley, John Wiley Cook, W G Honeycutt.

SECOND WEEK.

J I Seaford, D J Little, E F De-Marcus, O M Goodman, J Davis Hahn, M W Murph, D L Klutz, J O Mowrer, G H Bost, F F Starnes, Redemus Cox, M H Winecoff, T J Shinn, G E Fisher, D R Hoover, J C Furgerson, W K Lyles, J D Johnston.

It is said that a resolution will be offered at the next regular meeting to exclude all cattle, stock or anything that will trample down the lawn or scratch the trees in the court house lot, as Mr. Cor's lease on the lot for grazing purposes will then have expired, which will give the fathers power to act on the matter. So mote it be.

Where Are the Other Converts?

Says a Winston telegram: Yesterday [Sunday] there were 63 accessions to the Centenary Methodist church, 8 to Burkhead Methodist, 5 to Grace Methodist, 6 to the First Presbyterian, 27 to the First Baptist, 4 to Broad Street Baptist, as a result of the Fife meetings recently held here. There have been 13 accessions to the Methodist Protestant church since the meeting closed.

We read in the papers when the Fife meetings in Winston closed that there had been 900 conversions—notwithstanding Sam Jones had done the town but a few weeks previously. By casting up the above it will be seen that a total of 126 persons have joined the churches. Now, the question arises, what has become of the other 774 who were converted? Are not they going to join the Church? or were they already members and just converted over?

The Preacher's Increase of Salary.

One brother reported that he had received $175 for the year on his circuit, which he said was an increase of 50 per cent. Bishop Duncan remarked that was much like the report made from a Georgia charge whose members were congratulating themselves upon the 100 per cent. increase they had paid over the previous year's contributions—the report showed 67 cents raised and only 30 cents the year before. The same preacher who had received $175 and had a family. He reported 117 persons baptized. Dr. Wood asked if they were all adult baptisms, which elicited the response: "No, 116 of them were infants." This made the Conference room ring with laughter.—Report of the Reidville Conference.

Tomorrow is His Wedding Day.

License was issued this (Wednesday) morning for the marriage tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride at Forest Hill of Mr. Braxton McLester to Miss Lucie Ritchie. Rev. J O Alderman, of the Baptist church, will officiate.

Two Cannons.

Jno. D Cannon, formerly salesman at Cannon & Fetzer's, is in the city. John is now travelling for a millinery house of Philadelphia, Pa.

He tells us that his brother, Howard, has been down two months with rheumatism. He is better now and is in the insurance business.

Tuesday Cotton Day.

Tuesday was the biggest cotton day of the season.

There was cotton here from Rowan, Stanly, Union and Mecklenburg counties. The number of bales weighed was over 260, of this Messrs. Cannons & Fetzer bought 251 bales. All this cotton goes to the factories.

The price was 8:15 to 8:20, about 15 points higher than markets in adjoining counties.

On the Lookout for Him.

Charlotte officers phoned to Chief of Police Boger Tuesday afternoon to be on the lookout for one Jim Sawyer, ginger cake color, aged 20 or 21 years, weighs 165 pounds and is 5 feet 7 inches tall, wearing long hair. He stammers while talking. The negro is wanted for larceny, he having stolen several suits of clothes, a hat, etc. When last seen in that city he was wearing a brown suit of clothes. As yet he has not been apprehended.

Know a Good Thing.

Evangelists know a good thing when they see it.

Within the past few months, Sam Jones and Bill Fife have put in several weeks in Winston and came away well paid, both religiously and financially.

The next on deck is the Irish Evangelist Oaks who is booked for a few weeks work.

Winston must be a pretty tough place when it takes so much evangelizing to get her people into shape.

The question is will she stay right after she is put in order?—Greensboro Record.

And Still You Wonder Why?

The several lots in all the town were jammed with campers on Tuesday night who brought cotton, chickens, eggs, cabbage and apples from Ashe, Alexander, Burke, Watagua, Iredell, Mecklenburg, Union and Stanly counties to this market, and still many of our citizens wonder why it should be so. To be explicit, and for the information some folks desire it, the inducements for a man to bring his products to Concord are easily explained when the advertising columns of THE STANDARD are consulted each week in every one of the above named counties by hundreds of men who are on the lookout for their products and in return get necessities of life for very considerate and most reasonable prices.
