CONCORD, DEC. 4, 1895.

NORTH CAROLINA AS A PLACE TO LIVE.

To live men must work. The thinking man, however, to discover the place where the least labor will produce the best returns and then other conditions are favorable, will go to that location and there pass his allotted time in peace and contentment.

Those whose tastes incline them towards a pastoral life, will find in North Carolina more advantages and fewer drawbacks to a pleasant, even existence than any civilized place upon earth.

Our winters are delightful. The climate is conceded to be superb, but it is questionable if it is superior to our summer.

Try and think as much about business when out of the store as you do of your pleasure when in the store.

Constant abuse of those under you will strengthen your lungs at the expense of your manners.

There was a cigarette-smoking clerk who once became proprietor, but it was by accident.

Man is a lover by instinct, a husband through reason, a bachelor from calculation.

Senator Hill doesn't talk like a man who has fireworks concealed about his person. But he is the only Democratic politician in New York who is in favor of free coinage of silver.

Our grief for the dead is often but unconscious remorse for the unhappiness we have caused them while lying.

If you spend every cent you earn you won't wear out your shoe leather in going to the savings bank.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected.

Gold and Silver Found in a Nail Keg.

Mr. William Alderman, who had a small store at Harrison's Creek, Pender county, died a year or two ago, leaving some money that was found only a few days ago.

Not that Kind of a Doctor.

A dignified D. D. walked into a store here the other day and the proprietor saluted him, "Good morning doctor."

Accident No. 1.

Tuesday afternoon when the football team at the graded school was enjoying one of its initial games, the first accident was scored.

A SPECIFIC FOR La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs, AND LUNG TROUBLES, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping" me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,—reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,—procured, for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."
