CONCORD, DEC. 5, 1895.

We reproduce an article from the Raleigh Press-Visitor about ex-Judge Schenck's latest bomb. The old man is really sore over losing a job that he held for 14 years. Too bad to turn him out to grass at this hour of life! In all candor, we think Judge Schenck is too late—the state is made; and what few zephyrs do strike his wings, extended over the dear people, will hardly give him boost enough to sail into heaven of political honor or fame. The wings, too, will wear to a fraz until the next election. Too late! To late!

What are claimed to be the largest fire engines in the world are the two built recently in London. One is capable of throwing 1,400, the other 1,800 to 2,000 gallons of water per minute. The machines weigh three and one-half tons each, and can be readily drawn at full gallop by four horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Harman, of Lansingburg, Mich., celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding in a queer way last week. Sixteen years after their marriage they were divorced, and last Tuesday, the twenty-fifth anniversary, they were remarried.

Senator Butler has rented and is living in a $20,000 brown-stone front palace in Washington. The Senator is a horny-handed son-of-a-toil—a modern agriculturist.

The report comes from Washington that Congressman Shuford dropped a nickel into a street letter box slot and patiently waited for the thing to play a tune. We don't believe it. Congressman Shuford doesn't look like he is fond of music.

WHO PECKHAM IS.

A Brother of Wheeler H. Peckham, a Friend of Hill and Murphy, and a Life-Long Democrat.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The Senate, in executive session this afternoon, confirmed the nomination of Olney and Harmon. Rufus W. Peckham, of New York, nominated to be associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, is a brother of Wheeler H. Peckham, nominated and rejected for the same place during the last Congress. The nomination appears to be satisfactory to the Senate and there will be no dilatory tactics against the confirmation of the nominee. Mr. Peckham is a member of the Albany family of that name and has been for some years a member of the New York Court of Appeals. He is a man of about 55 years of age. He is a personal friend of both Senator Hill and Senator Murphy and when Wheeler H. Peckham was nominated before, Mr. Hill exclaimed that it was a pity the brother had not been given the honor. It is stated positively that the present nominee has the endorsement of both the New York Senators and that he will be confirmed as speedily as possible. Mr. Peckham has been a consistent Democrat all his life, but has never been identified with any of the factional party quarrels.

Managing a Daughter.

First—You can't do it; the man who can must be more than mortal.
Second—Give her her own way; it will save her the trouble of taking it.

Third—Pay for her dresses if you can afford it. Her dress maker will sue you if you don't.

Fourth—If she takes a fancy to any man you don't want her to marry, tell her your heart is set on her marrying him and swear she shall never marry any other. You can give her a free hand and she wouldn't have him if he was the only man left.

Fifth—If there is any man you want her to marry, kick him out of your house, forbid the servants to admit him, distribute man traps and spring guns and bull dogs all around your grounds, lock her in her room and vow if she marries him you won't leave her a penny. You will not have to wait long after that for the elopement.

Sixth—If she has no voice encourage her to sing whenever you give a party. It will attract attention to her and give your guests an excuse for complimenting her. Never mind the neighbors.

Seventh—If you are a poor man, teach your daughter to dance and play the piano. She can learn cooking and dressmaking and those things after she is married.

George Washington Hanged!

The murderer was a young negro of eighteen years of age, and was raised in Tarboro.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as a Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it, in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." A SPECIFIC FOR— La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs, AND LUNG TROUBLES, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping."

me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,—reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,—procured, for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."—EMILY WOOD, North St., Elkton, Md.
