If you are anxious to find the most reliable blood-purifier, read in Ayer's Almanac the testimonials of those who have been cured of such terrible diseases as catarrh, rheumatism, and scrofula, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then govern yourself accordingly.

A Stanly countryman, Mr. Alfred Honeycutt, is somewhat of a pedestrian. Thursday night he went to the depot to see the "cars," and after the train came to a standstill, he boarded it and was inspecting the mechanism when it rolled off with him. He was carried to Harrisburg and let down, from whence he walked back, reaching town about 3 o'clock this (Friday) morning.

As an emergency medicine, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral takes the lead of all other remedies. For the relief and cure of croup, whoopingcough, sore throat, and the danderous pulmonary troubles to which the young are so liable, it is invaluable, being prompt to act, sure to cure.

The board of health for New York City has passed an ordinance that will play havoc with the dairyman's profit by forcing the following stringent law: "No milk which has been watered, adulterated, reduced or changed in any respect by the addition of water or other substance, or by the removal of cream, shall be brought into, held, kept, or offered for sale at any place in the city of New York, nor shall any one keep, have, or offer for sale in the said city any such milk."

Two Deaths.
 Wm. Swearingan, aged about 50 years, died at Forest Hill Thursday afternoon, of pneumonia. He had been sick for a long time.

It was indeed a sad picture this (Friday) morning at the bedside of their infant when Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips beheld the cold form of their two month's old child, which was still in death. The angles silently, without knowledge of a fond parent, bore the little babe's soul away sometime during the night. Its lifeless form was not discovered until this morning.

A Dog's Mischief.

Wednesday night a wee little dog entered the home of Mr. Postel Lentz, on West Depot street, which was shut up in the sitting room, and the result was disastrous enough, sure. The little fellow amused himself by tearing up two lovely bonnets belonging to Miss Minne Lentz besides a number of books and other valuable articles.
