As an emergency medicine, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral takes the lead of all other remedies. For the relief and cure of croup, whoopingcough, sore throat, and the danderous pulmonary troubles to which the young are so liable, it is invaluable, being prompt to act, sure to cure.

The Rutherfordton Democrat says that Mr. W E Moore, of Forest City, went to the Atlanta Exposition last week, but he didn't enjoy it much. On the way, while the train stopped at Chester, S. C., he concluded to step off. It was very dark and he did not discover that the train was standing on a trestle. He fell sixteen feet and dislocated an ankle.

Experiments by Colonel Rochas, of the Paris Polytechnic School, show that the human brain is a fire whose luminous effluvia, given forth from the eyes, ears, nose and mouth, fills the air with a mild light for a radius of fifteen or twenty feet. What the brain theoretically is to the individual, the newspaper is to the community, the organ of luminosity, which radiates its light for miles instead of feet. It is the organ which not only thinks for the people, but sees for them, and tells them where they may secure all their daily needs and how to make their expenditures with the least outlay of the Christmas dollar.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any reason, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's drug store.
