A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Seedless raisins 7 1/2 cents per pound at the Racket store. d12

The northbound passenger train was three hours late this morning.

New crop New Orleans molasses at Edward Hill's.

We regret to announce that Rev.
Lancaster, of Rocky River, is quite sick.

Notice the many nice articles for presents, advertised by Yorke's jewelry store.

Fresh Carolina Rice just in at J P Allison's for 5 cents per pound.

Mr. Lee Martin, an operative at the Cabarrus cotton mills, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

A good dinner or supper at the Bazaar for 25 cents, including coffee.

See the advertisement of Mr. Alfred Klutz, coal dealer. His headquarters are at his home and at Miller's store.

The bazaar makes a pretty display of fancy things in the Litaker building, and the ladies in charge are sure to make a success of it.

Mr. J T Pounds is closing out bargains in furniture in the Morris building, next door to Morris House.

The vestibule train coming in from the north this morning was covered with that "beautiful white snow" that is so pure, you know.

Circus soap still leads the market.
Celluloid and corn starch, Pearlina and Soap Foam for sale at J P Allison's.

A 'nog party will be one of the many Christmas events. The result may be reported in detail when our New Year's resolutions are sworn to.

There will be an important called meeting of the Concord Hose and Reel Company tonight. Firemen take notice and report at your hall.

Jno. P Allison keeps a good line of dry goods, shoes, hats and groceries which he offers as low as the lowest. Call to see him.

Everybody is talking Christmas at present, and if you desire fine colognes and scented waters, consult Fetzer's drug store advertisement.

Beans, oatmeal, hominy, gelatine, Baker's and German's chocolate, olives, macaroni, canned goods of all sorts at J P Allison's.

If you are anxious to find the most reliable blood-purifier, read in Ayer's Almanac the testimonials of those who have been cured of such terrible diseases as catarrh, rheumatism, and scrofula, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then govern yourself accordingly.

Come out and patronize the Bazaar ladies. Everything prepared in very home-like style.

A number of young people will go out to Mr. Mack Stafford's, near Harrisburg, tomorrow night to attend a reception complimentary to Miss Morgan, of Laurens, S. C., who is Miss May Stafford's guest.

A word to the wise is sufficient.
You can take your better half and get a better dinner at the Bazaar than you can have prepared for the same money at home. d10

Several nights ago Marshall Mabrey, of Forest Hill, at a late hour found two greasy looking white tramps huddled up under the house of his father. They were frightened and made their escape before he could get a level on them with his gun.

Fresh citron, raisins, re-cleaned currants, extracts and spices for fruit cakes and Christmas goods at J P Allison's.

Miss Bettie White, of Rocky River, will leave next week for Corpi Christi, Texas, where she will spend the winter with her brother, Rev. Walker White. Rev. White, whose child died in Statesville several days ago, will then return to Texas with his family.

As an emergency medicine, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral takes the lead of all other remedies. For the relief and cure of croup, whoopingcough, sore throat, and the danderous pulmonary troubles to which the young are so liable, it is invaluable, being prompt to act, sure to cure.

The Baptist State Conyention in session at Greensboro represents 160,- 000 white members, or more. The Western Conference that recently adjourned represents 64,000 members. The North Carolina Conference that meets at Elizabeth City on Wednesday is another large body with more than 800,000 members. — Wilmington Messenger.

The Charlotte News tells of a little 12 year old girl in Mecklenburg county who cut one of her fingers on the point of an Indian arrow head. About two hours afterwards she was seized with violent pains, and her finger began to swell.
She suffered the same as a person who had been snake bitten, and a doctor worked with her all night.
The supposition is that it was a poisoned arrow and had retained the poison through all these years.

Santa Claus.

All arrangements have been made by Sims & Alexander to furnish everybody with fireworks. They have all kinds of roman candles, whistle booms, cannon crackers, little crackers, firecrackers, soda crackers, and, in fact, the handsomest assortment of the finest makes of plain and fancy candies.
See them before you buy elsewhere, for Santa Claus has made them headquarters. They are going out of business and sell cheap. d&wd19.

Look For Snow.

If you see it, let us hear something about it. Nearly everyone on the streets this afternoon predicted snow, and the forecast for tomorrow reads: "Threatening with rain or snow, followed by fair in Western portion."
Let it snow!

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have

The First Fruit of the Exposition.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 11.—One of the first fruits of the exposition, from a commercial standpoint, appears in the effort now being made to organize a direct connection between the Atlanta chamber of commerce and the commercial bodies of Costa Rica, Guatemala and Mexico.
The idea is to establish a commercial museum in Atlanta with a permanent exhibition of the products of those countries, and also to establish in Costa Rica, Guatemala and Mexico permanent exhibits of the products and manufactures of the Southern States.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
