A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

It was a good trade the merchants enjoyed today.

Fresh Carolina Rice just in at J P Allison's for 5 cents per pound.

An exposition party will leave tomorrow for Atlanta.

Leave orders for celery and oysters at Doye & Bost. 3t.

Cotton is bringing 8 cents today. It is not coming in very fast, although sixty bales were marketed.

Mr. J T Pounds is closing out bargains in furniture in the Morris building, next door to Morris House.

Bob Johnson, white, and George Kirk, colored, have been placed in jail to await trial at the next term of court, for an affray.

"It is very likely" says Principal Shinn, "that the graded school will close down next Friday, giving two weeks holiday."

Beans, oatmeal, hominy, gelatine, Baker's and German's chocolate, olives, macaroni, canned goods of all sorts at J P Allison's.

A jug, securely folded in a heavy cloth, was recently found in the corner of a certain yard in this city. The jug had contained brandy

Fresh citron, raisins, re-cleaned currants, extracts and spices for fruit cakes and Christmas goods at J P Allison's.

By mutual agreement Mr. E C Beach has severed his connection with the G W Patterson cotton mill as superintendent. He and family will continue their residence in this city.

Circus soap still leads the market. Celluloid and corn starch, Pearlina and Soap Foam for sale at J P Allison's.

Keeper John W. Cook, of the county home, says he has already killed over 2,000 pounds of pork and will yet kill 1,000 or more pounds this year. This is the largest quantity of meat raised any year since he has been in charge of the home.

Heinz's mixed pickles and fine Daisy cream cheese, besides an assortment of candies and nuts specially for the Christmas trade at John K Patterson's. Newest goods in town.

Master Richmond Reed, who sprained his ankle while playing football two weeks ago, was out upon the streets Friday for the first time since his unfortunate accident and it is only by means of a crutch and cane that he can hobble about.

Groceryman John K Patterson has undoubtedly the best trade of the town, for he has the freshest goods and the greatest variety of any store in the city. Hominy, grits and buckwheat always fresh.

Genuine Florida oranges at Doye & Bost now and all during the holidays.

Salisbury Herald: There was a small collision on the railroad yard here last night. The shifting engine ran into a freight train and was pretty badly smashed up. We understand that the night yard crew has been suspended because of the accident.

Ayer's Pills, being composed of the essential virtues of the best vegetable aperients, without any of the woody or fibrous material whatever, is the reason why they are so much more effective and valuable than any cathartics. The best family physic.

Jno. P Allison keeps a good line of dry goods, shoes, hats and groceries which he offers as low as the lowest. Call to see him.

Governor Carr has pardoned Thomas Birg, colored, a convict from Franklin county, who was serving a twenty years' sentence for assault with intent to kill. The case is an interesting one: Birg was put in the penitentiary eight years ago and directly after his conviction a negro named Morris was convicted and sent there. Two weeks ago Morris became fatally ill, and just before death confessed that he, and not Birg, committed the crime. Governor Carr gave Birg his pardon as a Thanksgiving gift.

It is often a mystery how a cold has been "caught." The fact is, however, that when the blood is poor and the system depressed, one becomes peculiarly liable to diseases. When the appetite or the strength fails, Ayer's Sarsaparilla should be taken without delay.

Fine Kentucky Horses and Mules.

Wait for Dodd's auction sale of Kentucky horses and mules, Saturday, December 21st, 1895, fifty head of horses and mules, at M J Corl's stable, Concord, N. C. Come to the sale, as they will positively be sold, regardless of cost. Each horse or mule must be as represented, or no sale. Positively no by-bidding. Sale will be held, rain or shine. Stock will be at Corl's stable, Friday, December 20th. Come and see them. R. A. Dodd

Lost a Tooth and Bruised His Face.

Master Leonard Brown was the victim to a painful accident Friday night, just after dusk, while on his way from the city. He was on his bicycle and traveling at a very rapid rate, when he ran between the hind legs of Master Earl Brown's horse, which was pulling his buggy at a trotting speed. In the collision Leonard got a tooth knocked out and several loosened, besides his face badly skinned up. His dog was following him and he was looking back at his faithful guard when the accident happened. His injuries are not serious.

Henry Neal Goes to Albany.

The Cabarrus countefeiter, Henry Neal, who put into circulation a year or more ago a number of illegally coined dollars, was tried Friday last at the Federal Court in Charlotte. He will get a free trip to the Albany penitentiary and twelve months at hard labor. Neal was under a $100 bond for his appearance at the last term of Federal court, but he skipped and forfeited his bond.

Worse in Swain Than at Graham.

Just before going to press we notice in the Charlotte Observer a criticism of a report in the Rutherford Democrat of the reported conduct of Judge Robinson at Graham court, in which the Observer thinks the charges too grave to be true. We have been informed by different persons that his conduct at Swain court was even more outrageous than at Graham.—Franklin Press.

THE RUSH OF HUMANITY.

People Who Travel, as Seen by Our Reporter.

—Mr. John H Ross, of Charlotte, was in the city this morning.

Santa Claus.

All arrangements have been made by Sims & Alexander to furnish everybody with fireworks. They have all kinds of roman candles, whistle booms, cannon crackers, little crackers, firecrackers, soda crackers, and, in fact, the handsomest assortment of the finest makes of plain and fancy candies. See them before you buy elsewhere, for Santa Claus has made them headquarters. They are going out of business and sell cheap. d&wd19

Without Representation.

T O Linn, Esq., who is clerk to the committee on Postoffices and Railways in the House, came in from Washington this morning. Mr. Linn says that we are virtually without representation in Congress that our representative, has not opened his mouth since Congress met. Mr. Linn calls our attention to the fact that the Vance eulogies are distributed by the new Congressmen and not by the old ones as heretofore. He will return to Washington to-night.—Salisbury World.

Yes, oh yes we are. We have an ignoramus there and we should be thankful if he never opens his mouth.

Building and Loan 15th Series Opened.

The fifteenth series of stock in the Concord Perpetual Building and Loan Association opens Saturday, December 7th. Call on the secretary and treasurer and subscribe. The third series of stock matures and will be paid off this month. A good paying investment.

J. P. ALLISON, Pres.
H. I. WOODHOUSE, Secretary and Treasurer. d410t

Peculiar It Is.

Mr. O W Kimbro, of Forest Hill, sent us an egg that is very peculiarly shaped and designed. It is perfectly flat on one side, on which is plainly visible the rising sun, sending forth its brilliant rays, while on each end is noticeable a paling fence with tall posts. It's a curiosity.
