A CHIEF JUSTICE SHOOTS.

The Highest Judicial Officer in Tennessee Fires on a Man for Writing Reminiscences.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 16.— Chief Justice David S Snodgrass, of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, at noon today shot Col. John R Beasley while in the law office of Brown & Spurlock. Two shots were fired by the Chief Justice, one taking effect in Beasley's left arm and producing a flesh wound. The cause was a long item in the newspapers this morning headed: "Some Tennessee History. Col. John R Beasley Recalls Matters Gone By."

Beasley had charged the judge with allowing political prejudice to influence a certain decision. Snodgrass said every statement Beasley made was a lie. He says Beasley put his hand to his pistol pocket, which Beasley denies. He is a Populist, and an inferior man physically to Snodgrass.

Snodgrass is out on $1,000 bail.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. USGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
