Death of Mr. A. E. Hoover.

As noted in a former issue, Mr. D. R. Hoover had gone to Lincolnton to see his brother, who was critically ill.

Mr. A. E. Hoover, the gentleman in question had been sick for three years and for the last six months was unable to leave his place. On the 19th, several hours before Mr. Hoover reached him, his brother died. He leaves a widow and five living children. He was 5 years younger than our townsman, being in his 47th year.

Poisoned.

Mr. J. A. McEachern, Mr. J. N. Hunter and Thos. Pritchard live on North Pine street. Yesterday a countryman came along with some liver pudding and souse to sell. Each of their families bought some and had it cooked for dinner. Later in the afternoon all who had partaken of it were taken with terrible nausea and pains. Dr. John R. Irwin was sent for and went from house to house, ministering to all. As soon as he saw the symptoms exhibited in all who had partaken of the meat, he pronounced their sickness due to poisoning. There were about three in each family who were ill.—Charlotte Observer.

A Generous Gift.

Mr. James W. Cannon, who is always awake to the duties of a citizen, to the interests of the public general and the welfare of the important institutions and organizations of the town and community, again demonstrated his generosity and public spirit this morning by sending to the Concord Hose and Reel company a cheque for $10.

The fire companies are institutions that should not be neglected, and if other property owners would open their hearts as did Mr. Cannon, our companies could be equipped equally as well as any other in the State.

MASKED BURGLARS.

An Express Agent Held up at Midnight—At the Muzzle of a Revolver He is Compelled to Open a Safe and Fork Over Nearly $1,000.

News reached the city yesterday morning of a bold robbery by two masked burglars yesterday morning at 1 o'clock at Roseboro, a station on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway, fifty-two miles west of Wilmington and one mile east of Fayetteville.

Mr. S. W. Grier is agent for the Southern Express company and telegraph operator and agent for the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway at that place, and from passengers who came in on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway last night we learn that he gives the particulars substantially as follows:

On Friday evening about 6 o'clock Mr. R. Butler, who is mayor of the town and engaged in business there, gave Mr. Grier a package containing $950 to be transmitted to the Durham Fertilizer company, of Durham, N. C. The Express company's safe is kept at the agent's residence, about two hundred yards from the depot, and when he went home about 10:30 o'clock that night he carried the money with him and locked it up in the safe. He and his wife retired shortly afterwards and at 1 o'clock they were aroused by a rap on the back door.

Mr. Grier inquired, "Who is that?" and a man outside replied that he was George McLamb, and that he wanted to send off a telegram as "old man White" was worse. McLamb is a resident of the place, but the agent, failing to recognize the voice as his, told the man at the door that it was not McLamb's voice. The burglar insisted that he was McLamb and the agent told him to go to the front door and stick the message underneath the door.

In the meantime, Mr. Grier slipped his pants on, opened his room door and stepped into the passage. As he did so, a masked man thrust the muzzle of a revolver in his face and demanded money. In some way he had opened the door and was in the passage when Mr. Grier was getting ready to come out. Mr. Grier replied that he had no money, but the burglar said: "You have. Open your safe and give me that package of $950, or I'll blow your brains out!" Mrs. Grier, had also stepped into the passage and attempted to scream, but the burglar told her he would kill both of them if they made outcry or gave an alarm. Mr. Grier being confronted by one masked man and seeing another on guard at the door, unlocked the safe and gave up the package of money. The burglars then backed out of the door and disappeared.

After the men had gone out, Mr. Grier called for help, and having secured his revolver, fired two shots with the hope of attracting help. No one, however, answered his alarm but some of the neighbors heard the shots.

The burglar who faced Mr. Grier in the passage is described as a slender man of about 140 pounds weight, and the one at the door was a short, stout man.

Mr. Grier has occupied his present position for more than five years. He is a man about 25 or 26 years of age and has a wife and one child.—Wilmington Messenger.

—Mr. Walter Kestler is over from Charlotte.

A Dream That is a Dream.

EDITOR STANDARD: Last night I dreamed of shooting a wild goose—only wounding it—having no more shells for my arquebuse I ran and quickly overtook it, and while in the act of cutting its head off with my knife, the goose broke forth in these classical words: "Have mercy on the amen corner."

Has this dream a significance, or is it a reproduction of an impression made on some one of the convolutions of the encephalic mass which is supposed to be encased in the human cranium? If so, which one, and at what period of protoplasmic evolution was the impression made, or is it a sort of "Santa Clause" jubilee which comes about this time of the year?

I fear it is an ill omen and I shall not suspend my nose from the traditional mantle until I hear from you. WILLIAM SMOTHERSOCK.

[Again the sages of the Lyceum must come to the rescue. We have personal evidence that this dream is not a case of delirium tremens.]

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store, Regular size 50c and $1.00.
