Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Dr. J. H. Odom is sick.

Resolutions are now in order.

The Exposition flyer has made its last trip.

Mr. C. H. Deal, a prosperous merchant of Columbia, S. C., is visiting relatives in this and Iredell counties.

Mr. Will Widenhouse has moved his family to town. They are domiciled at Mr. J. C. Willeford's home.

The bridge that goes over the railroad at the depot was slippery this morning, the rain of Monday night having frozen, causing it to be a little dangerous to drive over.

The firm of Sims & Alexander have gone out of the mercantile business altogether. Mr. Alexander has accepted a position with Lowe & Son and will begin his duties as salesman with the new year.

It was a caution to the merchants who monopolize the sidewalks with goods boxes to get their stores out of the way when the reel wagon takes the right of way as it did Monday evening while going to the fire.

The store of Rogers & Co., of Charlotte, had burglars Sunday night. Much clothing and gents' furnishings were carried off. The thief must have been a dude, inasmuch as everything missed was in part or entirely made of silk.

To the aged, with their poor appetite, feeble circulation, and impoverished blood, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a boon beyond price. Its effect is to change the ravages of time, by invigorating every organ, nerve, and tissue of the body. See Ayer's Almanac for the new year.

Capt. S. A. Ashe, editor of the late Raleigh State, has been appointed cashier in the office of Collector Simmons, of the fourth district, to succeed F. G. Simmons, resigned, and will take charge of the position January 1st. The selection is a splendid one.

So thorough is the excellence of Ayer's Hair Vigor that it can be used with benefit by any person, no matter what may be the condition of the hair, and, in every case, it occasions satisfaction and pleasure, in addition to the benefit which invariably comes from its use.

William Miller, one of Davie county's most popular and wealthiest citizens, during a fit of insanity Friday night, shot his wife in the back with a shot gun. She was running away from him when he fired. Her injuries are regarded as serious. Mr. Miller has several times recently threatened to kill his wife and child.

Against the Sheriff of Jackson.

Monday the State Treasurer, on Solicitor E. W. Potts' motion, took judgment before the Clerk of the Superior Court against the sheriff of Jackson county for four thousand dollars.

A Measles Report.

A rumor is afloat to the effect that the graded school will not take up next Monday on account of the town being full of measles. There are only a few cases in the city, and of a very mild form. The school will begin Monday unless otherwise ordered, there being no foundation for the rumor.

Big Work.

Capt. Propst has spent all his Xmas and has returned to Gaffney, S. C.

During the last year he has built at Gaffney, S. C., a large cotton mill, forty-five dwelling houses and a city hall.

At Clifton he built a hotel and a store room, besides doing much fine work at Spartanburg.

Capt. Propst is kept moving about in a hurry, so he is.

Stabbed Near the Heart.

Furniture dealer W. L. Bell is also an undertaker and came near meeting with a fatal accident Monday morning, when he arose quite early and undertook to split kindling to start a fire. He was walking about in darkness with a piece of light-wood and a knife in his hand and accidentally stumbled over something that caused him to fall. The blade of the knife penetrated the flesh and struck the chest bone just about the heart. It was indeed a narrow escape from having his heart touched.

Mules and Horses for Sale.

We have for sale at our stables in Concord 25 mules and 15 horses. The mules are large Kentucky mules well broken, and the horses are fine drivers. The attention of farmers is called to this stock of carefully selected animals. Good bargains may be obtained by calling at once. BROWN BROS. Concord, N. C.

Entertainments.

Mrs. J. H. Mason entertained a number of young folks, Monday night, complimentary to her guest, Miss Essie Plummer, of Charlotte.

The Misses Browns will receive tonight from 8 to 12.

Miss Ola Hamilton will entertain a number of young friends on Thursday night.

The Epworth League of Central Methodist church will be entertained to-night at the home of Mr. J. L. Hertsell, on Spring street.

At the home of Mr. K. L. Crayen the young folks will enjoy one of those old-time, merry-making candy pullings in which so much sweetness is long drawn out.

The Top of His Head Blown Off.

Late Saturday afternoon George Blackwell and John Summer, two colored men who live out near where the Wilkesboro and Statesville roads fork, were out hunting.

Blackwell was walking in front of Summer with his gun on his shoulder when it was accidentally discharged.

The entire load of shot struck Summer full in the forehead and he was knocked about ten feet in the air. His scalp was lifted from the skull and hung down the back of his neck.

Several shot entered Summer's skull but most of them glanced.

The wounded man was unconscious for several hours.—Salisbury World.

"Routed But Not Defeated."

Until January 1 you will find me with a skermish line of Furniture at the office of King & Lore. Come and see me. d23 tf. W. L. BELL.

THE RUSH OF HUMANITY.

The State Alliance Moves Its Headquarters.

The State Farmers' Alliance Monday removed its headquarters from Raleigh to Hillsboro.

Secretary W. S. Barnes sometime ago moved his family to that place.

Mr. T. Ivey, the State Business Agent, will not remove his family to Hillsboro. They will live in Cary. But his office will be at the new headquarters, and he will live there.

The old Tew barracks have been repaired, and in these buildings the offices are situated.

Subscriptions to the Shoe factory that is to be established at that point are still coming in. Its promoters say the enterprise will be in operation sometime next year.

The Teachers' Assembly.

The executive committee of the Teachers' Assembly held a short session yesterday morning, devoted to the discussion of the programme for the next session.

The work of the regular session will be condensed into three days. The programme will include the leaders in educational thought in North Carolina, and will be devoted to "live questions only."

President Joyner said: "This was the most harmonious meeting of the executive committee ever held."

It is not improbable that the Assembly will be held at Wrightsville next year. I understand that Secretary Parker will go there to look the ground over tomorrow.—Raleigh News and Observer.
