Mutilated Penell Pusher.
 Miss Margaret Linker, an aged maiden lady, died at her home in No. 10 township Saturday last.

James M Davis, of Salisbury, is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Morrison Caldwell, in south Concord.

Rev. W H L McLaurin is conducting a meeting at Mt. Olivet Methodist church in No. 4 township, a few miles above town.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Benton Barnhardt, Sunday afternoon Miss Allie Barnhardt was married to George Greene, both of this city.

The Racket keeps abreast of the times. They have just received of a manufacturer 600 samples of Ladies' handkerchiefs which they offer at 5 cents each.

Rock Springs camping meeting begins Thursday night, August 6th. A number of Cabarrus people will attend. The camp grounds are in Lincoln county.

The new bank building will be constructed by Messrs. R A Brown and William Propst, Mr. Brown to do the brick work and Mr. Propst to oversee all other work.

Never before has Concord had such fine photographic work done as is being done by Farrell & Stone. Delay not, but go at once, ere it be too late.

Mr Tom Waller, of No. 4 township, is going to avail himself of the excursion trip to Wilmington to visit his sister, whom he has not seen for 32 years and whom he did not know to be alive until lately.

Ayer's Ague Cure never fails to neutralize the poisons of malaria, and eradicate them from the system. This preparation is purely vegetable, contains no harmful ingredients, and, if taken according to directions, is warranted to cure fever and ague. Try it.

Mr. H Wiley Ludwig, one of the most substantial farmers of Cabarrus and a resident of No. 4 township, delivered to Cannons & Fetzer twenty-four bales of cotton Saturday afternoon. For twenty bales he received 7 cents, and for the remaining four he got 6 1/2 cents.

Neither calomel nor any other injurious drug is contained in Ayer's Pills. They are composed of the active principles of the best vegetable cathartics, and their use is always attended with marked benefit. For a sluggish liver or for constipation, nothing surpasses Ayer's Pills.

Mollie Reuben, a familiar character about town, was put in jail Saturday evening for whipping and tantalizing a four month's old grandchild. Mollie's daughter, mother of the child, created quite a scene on the streets in front of the court house when the deputy refused to let her and her child follow Mollie to the prison.

At 3.30 o'clock the county commissioners had not yet decided whether the hanging of Frank Howard would be public or private. The country people are 16 to 1 in favor of having the man publicly executed.

The trustees of the University have elected Prof. Edwin A Alderman as successor to Dr. Winston. While Dr. Winston's place will be hard to fill, much hope is felt for the success of Prof. Alderman's administration and the trustees are to be congratulated upon their prompt action in securing a worthy head for that venerable institution.

The Fourth Quarterly meeting for Concord circuit will be held at Centre the 3rd Sunday and Saturday before in this month. Presiding Elder Scroggs will preach at 11 o'clock Saturday and at the same hour Sunday, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The pastor will fill his regular appointments at Olivet and Mt. Carmel on that Sunday.

The Salisbury Herald of August 1st is before us containing the announcement of its discontinuation. We are sorry to miss it as one of our most welcome exchanges. Brother Whichard has our best wishes, though the Herald and STANDARD have not always been found on the same standpoint, and we hope soon to see him in his new field at Hickory, N. C., swaying with unabated vigor his editorial quill.

 When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
 When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
 When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Mr. Ed. Fisher Dead.
 Mr. Ed. W G Fisher died at his home on North Main street in this city Sunday morning at 7 o'clock.

He had been a long and patient sufferer, being afflicted with a chronic disease of the stomach and had been confined to his bed for two months past, life being at a low ebb, until at last the expected end came. Mr. Fisher was a life long resident of the city and was 49 years old. He leaves a wife and four children, two girls and two boys. The funeral services were conducted from the residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Rev. V R Stickley, of Enochville, the remains being interred in the city cemetery.

Mr. Fisher was a member of the Knights of Honor.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
 Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist at Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Found Dead in Her Bed.

Maggie Sides, a young woman who lived with her brother-in-law, Matthew Cauble, at Forest Hill, was found dead in her bed Saturday morning about 7 o'clock, having expired some time during Friday night. She was recovering from an attack of fever and had sit up all day Friday. When she retired Friday night she was in the brightest of spirits and was quite hearty. Her remains were taken to Stanly county, her former home, for interment. She was about 21 years of age.
