NOT LIKE OTHERS

There is a difference between medicines and medicines. Those of to-day, as a rule, differ from those of the past in many respects. Fully as great is the difference between Dr. King's and the ordinary medicines of to-day. It is unlike them in THESE FIVE THINGS:

ROYAL GERMETUER

 1. It does not taste like a medicine. It is as pleasant to take as lemonade and makes a most refreshing drink.
 2. It never nauseates the most delicate stomach.
 3. It does not swap off one disease for another. It does not set up one form of disease in order to relieve another as is so often the case.
 4. It contains no alcohol or opium in any form and is always harmless even when given to a babe one day old.
 5. It does not patch simply, it cures. It reaches as nothing else does to the hidden sources of disease in the blood and removes the cause. It does this with an ease and power that have never been equaled.
 For all troubles of the Blood, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Nerves, and for all forms of MALARIAL FEVER it stands pre-eminent—without a rival or a peer.

IN CABARRUS JAIL.

FRANK HOWARD READY TO MEET HIS GOD.

Henry Yorke, the Murderer, Brought Here—Claims That the Killing was by the Accidental Discharge of a Gun Held in His Hands—Feared Being Lynched and Eluded Officers.
 Henry Yorke is a young negro, probably 21 years of age, and was reared in Iredell county, a few miles from the spot where he slayed John Steele on Christmas last.
 Yorke was captured several days ago in the Walker's Mountain region of Virginia, near Palaska City, where he was employed in a coal mine, by Detective Painter, and was landed in Cabarrus jail Thursday night.
 Yorke stated to a STANDARD reporter today that the killing of Steele was by accident, and that himself and Steele were on the best of friendly terms. He said the gun which he held in his hands belonged to the brother of the murdered man and that when the gun discharged it was pointing at no one to his knowledge. Yorke made a visit to the home of his mother after the killing, and said that he told her that he thought of giving himself up to the officers. She told him there were threats of lynching him, and dreading such a terrible end to his existence, he began evading and dodging officers, finally locating at the above named place. He tells a very good story of accidental killing, and is terribly frightened.

A TALK WITH HOWARD.

Frank Howard, who will be hanged two weeks from today, is a villainous-looking criminal and swears by the God above that he is innocent of the crime for which he was convicted and sentenced to hang.

In his dismal cell by the side of his movable couch lay religious tracts and a Bible—but with all this Howard is hard hearted. He said that the law did not give him justice, but the God above, on whom he relied for rescue, would hear his pleadings and treat him well. He says he is prepared to die and is very unconcerned about his terrible end.

Hold on to the truth, for it will serve well, and do you good throughout eternity.

A woman never really knows the meaning of happiness and content until she is the mother of a healthy, happy child. The health of the child depends upon the health of the mother, both before and after birth. Most of all woman's weakness, and particularly the weakness that most strongly influences the health of children, comes from some derangement or disease of the distinctly feminine organs. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure troubles of this nature. It should be taken regularly by every woman during the entire period of gestation. It gives strength to all the organs involved, lessens the pains of childbirth and insures the health of both mother and child.
