PEMBERTON FOR CONGRESS.

Stanly's Man to the Front—Reached the Goal On the Third Ballot.

The delegates from the seventh Congressional district assembled in convention at Salisbury on Tuesday the 18th and were called to order at 12 m., by Hon. M. H. Pinnix, who called to the chair Mr. C. G. Montgomery and asked Messrs. B. R. Clark, of the Statesville Landmark, Will X. Coley, of the Lenoir Times, and H. B. Varner, of the Lexington Dispatch, to act as secretaries.

On taking the chair Mr. Montgomery made a well-timed, guarded and fitting speech when the committee on permanent organization and committee on resolutions were made (there being no contesting delegations, no committee on credentials was needed).

Convention then took a recess for one hour, after which committee reported Mr. L. S. Overman for permanent chairman and the temporary secretaries to be permanent.

Mr. Overman made one of his characteristically vehement speeches, drawing the lines sharply between the two grand parties with stirring appeals for fidelity to Democracy.

The committee on platform and resolutions, however much the differences of representatives, buried their differences in the interests of harmony, and reported through their chairman, S. E. Williams, the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, that the Democracy of this the seventh Congressional district in convention assembled, reaffirm our allegiance to the Democratic cause as enunciated by the Chicago convention and the convention at Raleigh, and pledge ourselves gladly to the support of the candidates of said convention nominated.

Resolution adopted. Nominations for Congress were then in order.

Mr. C. H. Armfield in a very appropriate and unaffected way presented Iredell's favor son, Mr. W. D. Turner.

Mr. J. M. Brown, of Albemarle, made some very happy hits in nominating Mr. S. J. Pemberton while he was less fortunate in some of his reflections. All in all he proved a brilliant champion of Stanly's son.

Col. Paul B. Means seconded Mr. Pemberton's nomination. A total vote of 272 was cast (Davie county from some unknown cause was unrepresented), necessary to a choice 137.

First ballot stood Pemberton 86½, Turner 62½, Kluttz 82½, Pinnix 99. The name of Kluttz was withdrawn by his demand. Second ballot—Pemberton 86, Turner 91, Pinnix 95. Mr. Pinnix disavowed any aspiration and asked that his name be not used. Third ballot—Pemberton 157½, Turner 67½, Pinnix 5.

Pemberton was declared nominated and being called for, expressed his thanks, his buoyant hope, his steady purpose to work for party success, and his promise of fidelity to duty if elected.

Mr. Turner being loudly called for, came forward and in his remarks displayed wisdom, ability and loyalty to the party and to its nominee. He declared that his nomination was made without his desire or furtherance and that he had only consented as a duty to make the canvass if it were a party demand.

Mr. Pinnix, in answer to call, said he had not been a candidate and did not need to make a speech. He was satisfied and loyal.

Mr. Theo. Kluttz was called and in the speech of the day thrilled the audience with his fine flowing oratory, relating interesting features of the Chicago convention and the notification meeting in New York as they related to our presidential nominee, Mr. Bryan. Mr. Kluttz told of the immense enthusiasm in New York, and in bitter phrase denounced certain New York journals in calling the notification meeting a failure. In the midst of Mr. Kluttz's beautiful oratory, he fell with bad grace into that well worn but poisonous thrust, that international bimetalists would have the United States ask other nations how to legislate in financial matters.

Mr. Kluttz was made presidential elector from the district by an enthusiastic vote.

The following were appointed the Executive Committee of the district: P. B. Means of Cabarrus, J. D. Elliott of Catawba, E. E. Raper of Davidson, Will X. Coley of Davie, H. P. Grier of Iredell, R. S. Rinehardt of Lincoln, J. R. Blair of Montgomery, L. H. Clement of Rowan, S. H. Hearne of Stanly, R. C. Puryear of Yadkin.

The convention was harmonious and enthusiastic and the Democrats enter the contest with a steadiness and a confidence that should bring out the full vote for victory in November.

LADIES WANT RELIEF.

Starched Garments Ruined by High Wet Weeds That Grow along the Sidewalks.

THE STANDARD has heard all kinds of kicks about things in general around the town, but the most serious one is that of the high weeds and grass growing along the sidewalks and ditches. The ladies of the city are kicking because on several streets the paths are so narrow that after a rain they cannot pass along with starched skirts without their being ruined. It is a great pity to have the ladies suffer this great nuisance and some steps should be made at once to give them relief.

The work is very much needed on all the streets except North Main. THE STANDARD is in sympathy with the ladies, but can't pull weeds.

Off To Newell High School.

As the summer months come and go, so do the school boys. Newell High School, which opened its first session last week under the management of Prof. P. E. Wright, formerly of Enochville, who is an experienced teacher, is drawing a number of young boys from Cabarrus. Master Alvin Watson, of this city, Mr. Daniel Faggart of Poplar Tent, and Mr. Thorton White of No. 11 township, have entered the school.

Home From Oregon.

Among the many visitors to our pleasant little city is Mr. P. Alex. Correll, Jr., who is on a visit to his parents and friends in this city and county. He arrived Tuesday from Berry, Oregon, where he is engaged in farming and the saw mill and lumber business. Mr. Correll is highly pleased with the prospects on his section of the continent. He was surprised to find that Concord had grown to such enormity.
