AN OUIFIT CAPTURED.

Sheriff Sims Made a Raid Monday Night and in the Haul Got Fifteen Gallons of Whiskey—An Unexpected Turn—Man Gave Them the Dodge and Escaped.

Raiders were out Monday night. Blockaders have been running promiscuously through parts of Cabarrus for a long time and it has been a hard matter to catch them.

Nevertheless, Monday night Sheriff Sims, Revenue Officer George W Means, Deputies Will Propst and Jay Sims left town shortly after dark for the Jingle place on Coddle creek, to nab a man that has been giving considerable trouble out there. Going up the creek towards Morris' mill, about one hundred yards from the home of Evans Taylor, a short distance from the road, they espied a wagon and at once began to investigate, finding in the wagon four empty kegs, and one thirty gallon barrel containing fifteen gallons of corn whiskey. This find was all seized, together with the wagon and team.

The man had left the wagon and was found at the home of Taylor trying to sell some whiskey, having his little brown jug with him. The officers prevented the trade, however, and when they put in their appearance the man stepped aside to get a drink of water. He made one leap and passed out of the sight of the officers, making his escape. It is thought that he went to Rocky River for his water.

The name of the blockader is not known, but indications are that he is from Stanly county. An overcoat was in the wagon, in the pocket of which was found an envelope addressed to Hon. S J Pemberton at Albemarle.

The Sheriff was not after this man, but brought the plunder in just the same. The team is at Brown Bros. stable.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians's prescriptions or other preparations.

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles free at Feszer's Drug Store.

NOTICE. I WANT every man and woman in the United States interested in the Opium and Whisky habits to have one of my books on these diseases. Address B. M. Woolley, Atlanta, Ga., Box 352, and one will be sent you free.

Two Fine Sermons.

Mr. Smith Shuping of this city, attended the meeting at Prosperity Lutheran church in Rimertown Sunday last, and says the attendance was the largest gathering he ever witnessed at a country church. Rev. S D Steffey, pastor of St. John's church, preached two fine sermons, with great effect upon his listeners. A baptismal service took place, when two children were baptized.

Rev. Steffey will preach at that church on the 3rd Sunday at 3 o'clock, on "Infant Baptism."

Mrs. R. J. Holmes Dead.

Mrs. R J Holmes, of Salisbury, died at 6:45 p. m., Monday at Connelly Springs. A telegram to Mr. W M Smith says she will be buried tomorrow morning.

Mrs Holmes was the only surviving member of the noted family of Mr George Heilig. Her mother was Miss Sallie Furr before her marriage and formed the link of relationship of Mrs. Holmes to the Smith and Furrs and others of Cabarrus.

The late deceases of the family were Major S G Heilig, of Mt. Pleasant and Col. P N Heilig, of Salisbury. The other members of the family were Caleb Heilig who died before the late war, Mrs. Key. Cone, formerly Mrs. John Miller and mother of Mr. Daniel Miller of Statesville, and Mrs. George Bernhardt, mother of the Bernhardt brothers of Salisbury.

Her death seems quite unexpected and we have not possession of the particulars. She leaves a husband and family of children who have our sympathies in this their sad bereavement.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Going to College.

College students are passing through to Mt. Pleasant every day. Mr. H B Shoup, of Mikeville, Fla., was met at the train this morning by P. H. E Derrick, one of the college faculty.

Mr. Charles Phillips, of this city, left to-day and will begin his studies with the opening of school to-morrow. Others are expected to-night and to-morrow.

OUSTED SLEEPING NEGROES.

Their Rest Broken by Intruders at Midnight—A Great Nuisance.

Since the new Phifer-King building has been under cover, the store rooms have been a rendezvous for several of the many negroes that lounge around town, making it their lodging place. Mr. W D Anthony has the contract for painting the rooms and being suspicious of the "roost," visited the room soon to be occupied by the New South Club and there found several slumbering negroes nestled upon a small pile of shaving. Himself and Nightwatchman Johnston ousted them quicker. While no serious damage had been done, it is not altogether safe to let people sleep in the building among the shaving.

Considerable complaint is heard from various people about the aggregation of little negro boys that congregate under the awnings, over the sidewalks on Sundays and at night, monopolizing and blockading the passway. Besides this, they use very obscene language and make it so unpleasant that ladies hesitate to go by such places, especially on Sunday. The trouble has been laid before the policemen and it behooves the authorities to rid the town of such a nuisance.

The Magistrate Elections.

Some muddle seems to exist with regard to the election of magistrates.

The law directs that three magistrates shall be elected in each township and one additional magistrate for each one thousand inhabitants of a town or city. This requires the election of nine magistrates in Concord. One third of the magistrates retire every two years by expiration of term. Of course they are eligible to office again.

The nomination of magistrates does not belong to the county convention. They are nominated and elected by their respective townships.

Ward No. 4 passed a motion last Friday night authorizing its delegation to the county convention to be a committee to confer with like committees from the other wards for the purpose of nominating suitable men for magistrates. It is to be hoped that this method will need the approbation of the other three wards and that the subject will receive due attention.

The Coming of Baby.

When a baby comes to the house real happiness comes. The care and anxiety count for nothing against the clinging touch of the little hands and the sound of the little voice. The highest function given to human beings is bringing healthy, happy children into the world. Over thirty years ago the needs of women appealed to Dr. Pierce, now chief consulting physician to the Invalid's Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N Y. The result of his study improved by thirty years of practice is embodied in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It strengthens, purifies and makes healthy the organs distinctly feminine. It gives weak women the strength and health necessary for the production of healthy children and it makes the bearing of those children easy. It is sure to cure any weakness or derangement peculiar to women; stops pain, soothes inflammation, strengthens, purifies, invigorates.
