SHORT LOCALS.

Mrs. Mamie Davis is again at Lowe's.

Did you hear the whistles of the school children?

Mr. George Fisher, who runs the street sprinkler, says the supply of water at the dams is giving out.

The Populist primaries for Cabarrus will be held Friday, the 18th, and the county convention will be held Saturday.

The yellow-hammers—Palmer and Buckner—were notified of their nomination as the decoy ticket at Louisville Saturday.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Wharey, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Mooresville, preached to the soldiers of the Fourth Regiment at that place Sunday last.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Concord at the St. Cloud on Thursday, September 24. His practice is limited to eye, ear, nose and throat.

A Kansas farmer cut his hay crop by night because he would rather work by the light of the silver moon than under the rays of the golden sun.

Will the stores close Thursday morning long enough to let the clerks and all those who desire to go to the station to see and hear Bryan? How about it, business men?

THE STANDARD is in receipt of a copy of "The North Carolina White Ribbon," a neat little five-column, four-page paper published in the interest of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of North Carolina. It is edited by Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, of High Point, and Mrs. C. E. Craven, of this city. Its motto is: "O Woman! Great is Thy Faith: Be it Unto Thee Even as Thou Wilt."—Matthew 15:28.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
 Take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Rev. W. J. Boger, of this county, left Monday night for Mt. Airy Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, where he will finish his ministerial course.

Mr. D. D. Parker, a handsome youth of New London, has secured a position with Cannons & Fetzer and will be found in the clothing and gents' furnishing department.

An exchange says: "The 16 to 1 men are silver bugs, the Prohibitionists are water bugs, the woman suffragists are lady bugs, the sound money men are gold bugs and the mugwumps are humbugs."

Mr. Frank Freeze, son of A. M. Freeze, of Mill Hill, has gone to Newells, where he will enter Newell High School, under Prof. P. E. Wright. Cabarrus is well represented at that institution.

Miss Maggie Fisher, of Mount Pleasant, has accepted a position in the millinery store of Miss Nannie Alexander. She is now in the city and will in a few days enter upon her duties in that establishment.

"I consider it my duty," says Mr. F. Z. Dies, of San Diego, Texas, "to certify that Ayer's Pills have completely relieved my wife of neuralgia, from which complaint she was, for a long time, a great sufferer." They are easy to take and always effective.

And now two fools are arranging to start from San Francisco and crawl across the continent on their hands and knees. The lunatic asylums of the land, while full, do not contain all that should be confined within their walls.

People who live in new countries are liable to be prostrated by malarial fevers. Inhabitants of cities, by reason of bad drainage and unwholesome odors, suffer from similar diseases. Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted a specific for all malarial poisons.

Miss Ida Rich, an operative in the Cabarrus cotton mills, caused a ripple of excitement just as she was entering her home Monday evening by fainting and toppling over. Her day's work had been too much for her, she not being very well. She was soon brought to.

Wilmington Star: The Winston Sentinel is responsible for the statement that a Salem lady says there is "a young couple in the Twin City who do their courting in the Salem graveyard, and may be seen there six nights in a week." This does not necessarily imply that this Salem lady has a good deal of spare time if not curiosity, but it may imply that these young people have a due appreciation of the solemnity of the business in which they are engaged and the grave results that may come from it.

MOTHERS

recovering from the illness attending childbirth, or who suffer from the effects of disorders, derangements and displacements of the womanly organs, will find relief and a permanent cure in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Taken during pregnancy, the "Prescription" MAKES CHILDBIRTH EASY by preparing the system for parturition, thus assisting Nature and shortening "labor." The painful ordeal of childbirth is robbed of its terrors, and the dangers thereof greatly lessened, to both mother and child. The period of confinement is also greatly shortened, the mother strengthened and built up, and an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child promoted. If THE MARRIED WOMAN be delicate, run-down, or overworked, it worries her husband as well as herself. This is the proper time to build up her strength and cure those weaknesses, or ailments, which are the cause of her trouble. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep and makes a new woman of her.

Mrs. ABRAM LYON, of Lorraine, Jefferson Co., N. C., writes: "I had been suffering from ulceration and falling of the womb for several years, or since the birth of my youngest child. I consulted all the physicians around here and they gave me up and said there was no help for me. At last, almost discouraged, I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and took five bottles. It is three years since and I have no more return of the trouble. I feel very grateful, and in fact, owe you my life. If I do not think I should have been alive now if I had not taken your medicine."

PERSONAL POINTERS.

The Ebb and Flow of the Human Tide at This Port, as Seen By Our Reporter.

—Mr. M. L. Jackson, of Salisbury, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. M. J. Freeman is off on the road again, going north this morning.

—Mrs. Rev. T. E. Winecoff left this morning for Chapel Hill, her future home.

—Mrs. James P. Cook returned to the city last evening from a visit to her sister, Miss Gertrude Norfleet, at Matthews.

—Mr. J. L. Eddleman, who has been spending a week in the city with his family, left this morning for Charlotte and Columbia.

—Mrs. J. P. Allison and Mrs. A. B. Young left this morning for Washington, D. C., to spend some time with relatives.

The burden of labor is constantly being lightened by new inventions, but nothing new has yet been discovered to brighten the hours of labor, and make life worth living like Simmon's Liver Regulator does. It's the King of Liver Medicines. A sluggish liver depresses one's spirits and causes languor, besides upsetting the whole system. But Simmon's Liver Regulator tones up and strengthens the body.

Watson the Wild Man.

Watson, the Populist, is resolved to have more fusion or more confusion.—Exchange.

Watson keeps up the war on Sewall, and Sewall just looks dignified.—Syracuse Standard.

Tom Watson has gone to Texas. Possibly he is in search of a State big enough to hold him.—Atlanta Journal.

Texas is exciting enough in its normal state, but with Tom Watson executing a war dance on the tail of the Popocrat ticket, it must be thrilling.—Baltimore American.

Tommy Watson says Mr. Sewall has no right to a place on the Chicago ticket because he, Sewall, "cannot carry his own family." As Mr. Sewall's son is on the stump against his father's ticket, Watson comes very near making a centre shot.—Syracuse Courier.

The Arizona Kicker.

Take a walk through a cemetery, remarks a contemporary, and you will find the last resting place of the man who blew into a gun to see if it was loaded. A little further down the slope is buried the crank who tried to show how close he could pass in front of a moving railroad train. On strolling about you pass the modest monument of the hired girl who started the fire with kerosene and the grass-covered knoll that covers what is left of the boy who trifled with a mule's tail. The tall shaft of the man who blew out the gas casts a shadow over the bosom of the boy who tried to jump a moving train. Side by side the ethereal creature who always had her corset to the last hole and the intelligent idiot who rode a bicycle nine miles in ten minutes, sleep undisturbed. Here repose the remains of a young doctor who took a dose of his own medicine, and just over there, with the top of a shoe box at his head, lies a rich man who married a young wife. Away over there by a side gate repose the remains of a boy who went fishing on Sunday and the woman who kept strychnine beside her baking powder in the cupboard. The man who had wares to sell would not advertise and starved to death is quiet now, and the fool-killer is gathering them in one by one.

It is an old and homely adage and finds an application here. The maker of merchandise has reached the end of his summer. His season is over; yours has just begun. He's anxious to sell what is left of his made-up product at almost any reasonable sacrifice. We're watching your interest in this matter and as a result have made some purchases that will surprise you by their cheapness.

HERE THEY ARE:

NOT LIKE OTHERS

There is a difference between medicines and medicines. Those of to-day, as a rule, differ from those of the past in many respects. Fully as great is the difference between Dr. King's and the ordinary medicines of to-day. It is unlike them in

ROYAL GERMETUER

THESE FIVE THINGS:

1. It does not taste like a medicine. It is as pleasant to take as lemonade and makes a most refreshing drink.
2. It never nauseates the most delicate stomach.
3. It does not swap off one disease for another. It does not set up one form of disease in order to relieve another as is so often the case.
4. It contains no alcohol or opium in any form and is always harmless even when given to a babe one day old.
5. It does not patch simply, it cures. It reaches as nothing else does to the hidden sources of disease in the blood and removes the cause. It does this with an ease and power that have never been equaled.

For all troubles of the Blood, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Nerves, and for all forms of MALARIAL POISON it stands pre-eminent without a rival or a peer.
