THANKSGIVING.

How It Was Enjoyed in Concord—A Union Service—Rev. Miller's Discourse—"America" Our Pride.

Thanksgiving seemed a day of gladness and joy to most of our people. Many closed their business places and engaged in recreative sports out of town. Others engaged in social gatherings and festive pleasures. Some sought exhilaration in that most bracing of all outings, in teams and vehicles; but to many all festivities are unpalatable and joys are limited if the sanctuary is not the chief among joys.

Dr. J. C. Davis held a Thanksgiving service at All Saints' Episcopal church. Besides an appropriate discourse the service was rendered attractive by specially selected music and a collection consisting of money, clothing, etc., to be bestowed on Thompson Orphanage at Charlotte.

A most delightful feature of the day was the gathering of pastors, Alexander, Parker, Davis and Miller and parts of their congregations and others at the First Presbyterian church, where each of the pastors named took part in the Thanksgiving service.

Rev. Miller preached the sermon from the text: "Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase, and God, even our God, shall bless us." The speaker dwelt on the virtue of gratitude and the beauty of Thanksgiving and praise. He dwelt also with delight on the fact that this great nation, with all its progress and all its immense business, and in spite of the fact that there is much wickedness to be deplored, when called by its chosen head to conform to this our established custom, closed its business and hushed its noisy clatter in honor of Him who rules in the kingdoms of men. If wicked Sodom would have been saved for ten righteous this land, with so many who reverence and adore Him, must receive his loving care and protection. The late campaign, said the speaker, was absorbed with the great issues so vigorously contended for by the respective parties. But the two eminent men that were chosen by the people to champion the respective causes were themselves living powers in the kingdom of grace, and no great calamity could overtake us while such true piety marks our chosen leaders.

The speaker reminded the people of the threatened war between the two greatest nations on the earth, that for a while caused much anxiety. But the fact that England and the United States were two of the most Christian lands, made it possible to avert the war, and arbitration, the outcome of Christianity, pointed to our swords made into plow shares and our spears into pruning hooks.

The speaker claimed that the greatness of our leading nations rested on Christianity, and that Christianity rested on the observance of the Sabbath as God's appointed day of rest from our ordinary labors to turn our minds from them to the source of all good. A collection was taken for the Orphanage at Barium Springs and amounted to $24.

The church was almost full of attentive listeners, the music filled well its noble part. As the church was being vacated the organ pealed forth that grand old national air "America" and we regretted that it was not sent echoing over the land by every voice of those who love God and country.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her recovery, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzner's Drug store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.

Spanish Spies Following Gen. Lee.

Consul General Lee's friends do not know whether to be amused or amazed at the discovery made today that two of the spies who are being paid by the Spanish minister out of a large "secret service fund" which has been allowed him by the Spanish government have been following Consul General Lee's movements ever since he returned to Washington.—Washington Dispatch.

The show travels through the country and the outfit is carried by a long train of wagons and pretty horses. They gave a performance at 2 o'clock this afternoon and will show again tonight. The press in various parts of the State speak in complimentary terms of the show as being strictly first class and very clean. The price of admission is 25 cents, children 15 cents. MR. KENNETT ENTERTAINS.

A sumptuous supper—Oysters, Quail on Toast, Etc.

Mr. J. A. Kennett celebrated the national holiday with an oyster supper in honor of his employer, Mr. W. R. Odell, and eight of his associates in daily business, with Rev. Paysour and THE STANDARD man, who is proud to be the uncle of the hostess, Mrs. Kennett, who knows so well how to please the palate of that class of human beings who take much stock in good eating and who generally show it by their deeds. After the feast a most pleasant evening of social chat was enjoyed and we dispersed, leaving our most hearty thanks and carrying with us the most satiated appetites and most grateful remembrances.

Thanksgiving Casualties.

Jim Folks, a young man living at Cannonville, was out for a spin Thanksgiving Day, and while coasting down the steep grade beyond Mr. F. A. Archibald's, on North Church street, his pants leg was caught in the chain, throwing him with terrible force upon a rock. His right ear was cut nearly off, a horrible gash cut over his right temple and his face was "bodily" skinned. He was knocked unconscious and remained in that condition for several hours before receiving medical attention. Dr. Sam Montgomery dressed the wounded man, but found no bones broken. Mr. Folk was able to be up this (Friday) morning, but somewhat disfigured and very weak from the loss of blood. His bicycle was broken to pieces.

Brown Bros. hired out two buggies that were "topped," having been turned over and the tops broken off.
