Friendly Belligerents.

We Clip the following from an exchange that looks very much like it but we wonder how the two triendly sentinels happed to be able to understand each other. Let it go, however, it is good reading :

"In a letter to an Ottawa county (Kan.) paper one of the members of Gen. McArthur's brigade writes from Manila: Night before last I was on picket duty all night and yesterday morning I found that the negro picket was within a hundred yards of me. After a little talk we both laid down our guns and met between the lines and had a little visit. He said the people in their army did not want to fight us but they had to or their officers would kill them. He also said that he had not had a bite to eat for three days. I gave him what hardtack I had with me, and The Dodson Ramseur Chapter of it did me more good to see him

A CASE OF LOCKJAW.

Bennie Levy in a Bad Condition-The Result of a Wound in His Foot.

On the 20th day of last month, Bennie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Levy, who live on West Depot street, ran a splinter about an inch or more into his foot. Since that time the splinter had remained in his foot until Wednesday evening, when physicians were called and the cause of the trouble removed.

But the worst was not over, for the boy was seized with leckjaw that afternoon. Though his case is a most serious one, all hopes are not given up for his recovery. His jaws are not tightly locked but the teeth are nearly together. His constitution is as strong as one could expect, and shows no weakness

Mr. Pratt, of Charlotte, who has succeeded in finding his animal. It had strayed to Mr. Marshal Dorton's in No. 10 township. Mr. Pratt had sent an order to Mr. Dorton to let another gentleman bring the mare to Charlotte, but lest there might be some crookedness about the matter, Mr. Dorton would not let the animal go until the rightful owner comes after it.
