and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Never fails to cure; Then why experiment with worthless imitations? Price 50 cents. Your money back if it fails to cure.

$50 REWARD.

I will pay the above reward for the safe delivery of Charles Barringer to me in Concord. He is of dark ginger cake color, about five feet ten inches in height, weighs about 160 pounds and aged about twenty-one years. He escaped arrest here on July 1, 1899. Any one hearing of his whereabouts will do well to capture him. J. L. PECK, Sheriff.

Attention, Veterans!

Members of Camp 212 Cabarus County United Confederate Veterans are hereby requested to assemble in the court house at 11 o'clock on Tuesday, the 8th day of August next, for the purpose of the election of officers and the transaction of such business as may be of interest to the organization.

D. A. CALDWELL, Commander.
J. R. ERWIN, Adjutant.

While there will be no effort to have one grand table for a public dinner, it is desired that veterans bring their families and picnic baskets that groups of their own selection, members of former companies or regiments, etc., shall enter into the highest degree of social enjoyment for the day.

The freedom of the town will be extended and public grounds will be open for the enjoyment of the veterans and their friends and loved ones.

Come, and make it a day of happy greeting of old comrades and one of general delight.

D. A. CALDWELL.

A National Union Organized Here.

A Council of this order was organized Friday night with the following official roll:

Ex-President, J. B. Sherrill; President, M. B. Stickley; Vice-President, J. W. Tony; Speaker, Wade Barrier; Secretary, C. M. Sappenfield; Financial Secretary, W. R. Harris; Treasurer, J. C. Smith; Chaplain, Rev. J. N. Faust; Serg't-at-Arms, Will Goodman; Usher, G. R. Harris; Doorkeeper, Rev. J. E. Thompson; Trustees, R. A. Brower, J. W. Propst and Dr. J. E. Smoot.

Mr. B. A. Collier, General Deputy, who organized this Council, is to be congratulated in getting together twenty-five members when there are seven similar orders already established here, but Mr. Collier believes, himself, in the National Union and therefore talks it with intelligence. Mr. Collier has been ably assisted in his work here by Mr. W. G. Boshamer.

This order will have another meeting on Monday night. In the meantime the charter still stands open.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages, and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at P. B. Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.
