If you want to be pleased, go to Brown's barber shop.

It is whispered that a dance will occur tomorrow night.

Miss Kate Bryan, of Illinois, is visiting at Mr. Dan Lipe's, on Cold Water.

Country watermelons are coming in, but they are not as large as in former years.

Mr. Charley Sherwood, of No. 4 township, says the blackberry crop is a thing of the past.

Mr. Arnold Crowell, of Palmersville, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Dayvault has gone to Troutman to spend three weeks with her relatives.

Messrs. Alex. Boyd, Joe Hill and Dolph Mangum, spent Sunday in Mecklenburg county, near Lowesville.

Mr. John L. Miller and family have gone to the home of Mr. Miller's father in Rowan county, near Rockwell.

Members of the band are hereby notified that a practice will occur tonight at their hall. Every member is requested to be present.

Mr. John Pitts, of Davidson, spent Sunday here with his parents. He was accompanied by his friend, Mr. Madison Maxwell, also of Davidson.

Now that crops are laid-by, farmers are putting in their time at hauling wood. The streets are generally lined with wood-wagons.

Cannon & Fetzer Co. have torn away the old Davie Bostian house on East Depot street and will erect a line of stalls on the lot. Farmers and visitors to the city will find this a much needed convenience, and will appreciate the new order of things.

The picnic at Mooresville for the Presbyterian orphanage at Barium Springs will occur on Thursday week, July 27th. A large crowd will go from here.

A certain Concord painter has contracts for painting ninety new dwelling houses, five store rooms, one bank and a hotel, all in this city and at Albemarle.

Kings Mountain and Concord will cross bats at the Miller Park tomorrow and Wednesday. Good games are a certainty, if the weather does not interfere.

The ball game between Kings Mountain and Concord at Miller Park tomorrow afternoon will be a good one. These teams have played four games, each winning two.

Several wagon loads of young people of Forest Hill wended their way Pharrward today, indulging in a basket picnic and fishing party at Pharr's mill.

Miss Mary Maxwell, daughter of Col. D. G. Maxwell of Charlotte, is visiting Miss May Wallace King. She will visit at Mr. P. M. Morris' in the country before returning home.

His many friends in this city were glad to see Mr. Marshall Harris here last Sunday. He came down from Salisbury to spend the day with his brother, Chief James F. Harris.

There was only one case on docket at the mayor's court this (Monday) morning, when Isabel Harris was charged with assault upon Mary Harris, alias Mollie Rueben. Isabel was fined $1.00 and costs.

Harvey Dorton, of No. 10 township, was in the city and reports quite a party of young folks at Sossamon's springs. They are quartered in tents and are passing the time in picnicking, hunting and fishing.

It is with regret that we learn that Mr. T. H. Cook and family will soon leave Concord, to make their home elsewhere. Mr. Cook has option on several more lucrative positions than the one he has here, but has not fully decided where he will locate.

I am in Concord to stay while there is employment for me in my line. I dress and varnish furniture, restoring its original beauty. I also paint and varnish carriage work. Prompt attention to business and satisfaction guaranteed at reasonable rates. Call at the Morris house, on Gerge Ray.

A Large Crowd Summering.

By a large majority, Concord was represented at the Misenheimer & Lentz's springs on Sunday. As always, one enjoys the best accommodations obtainable at a similar place at the hands of Mrs. Misenheimer and her assistant, Mr. Jesse Shuping. As best they can, they handle the throngs of people who imbibe so freely of the sulphurous liquid, climb and descend the steep incline, perambulate over the grounds and partake of the sumptuous meals served.

Over one hundred people were here for dinner on Sunday. Twenty-six arrivals from Concord were registered, twelve from Salisbury, sixteen from Mt. Pleasant, nine from Albemarle, besides the thirty or more regular boarders, among the latter being Misses Kate Nicholson and Lewis Harris, Prof. M. A. Boger, Chas. Phillips, Dr. M. L. Marsh, Press Freeze.

Quite a crowd arrived late Saturday evening to spend the week. They are Misses Agnes Moss, Sallie Belle Erwin, Chasie Brown, Mary Virginia Wadsworth, Fay Brown, Lallah Hill, Mrs. Jno. C. Wadsworth and children, Mrs. Mamie Davis, Mrs. Dusenbury, Mrs. C. W. Swink, Mrs. N. F. Yorke, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennette.

Messrs. Sam Ervin, Eale Brown, Archey Brown, Brandon Means, Gus Hartzell, Archie Cannon, Chas. Harris, Joe Cannon, Dr. T. F. Pharr, C. W. Swink and Frank Cannon, spent Sunday here.

Relieved of Much Suffering.

About three months since the 8-months old child of Mr. Pet Cochrane, of the Bala cotton mill, dropped a heavy hammer upon its finger, mashing the flesh and splitting the nail. The wounded member had been a source of much annoyance and great suffering for the child, but on Saturday last it was relieved to a considerable extent, when Dr. S. L. Montgomery very skillfully removed the pieces of nails, by resorting to the freezing process. The little fellow endured the operation without a murmur, and is now doing nicely.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitter; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by P. B. Fetzer's Drug store

Our Boys Victorious Saturday.

Although the Concord baseball team met defeat in five games during last week, they covered themselves with glory on Saturday afternoon when they defeated Charlotte's boasted nine in a score of 7 to 0.

Many who witnessed Saturday's game say that it was one of the cleanest they had ever witnessed and that our boys did some of the best playing ever done on the Charlotte diamond.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts.—M. L. Marsh & Co.

Rules As To Expectoration.

After the likeness of Charlotte (?) the Southern now has posted very prominently in some of its passenger cars the following notice in large type: "Spitting on the floor tends to spread disease and is otherwise objectionable. Gentlemen will please be governed accordingly."

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times the Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. The remedy is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., druggist.
