NUMBERED WITH THE DEAD.

William Safrit Passed Away Saturday—A Good Man of 69 Years.

Mr. William W. Safrit, of No. 6 township, died last Saturday and was buried on Sunday evening at St. John's church.

Mr. Safrit had attained the age of 69 years, though active and apparently aging but little. For about a month, however, he had battled with disease and yielded as above stated.

He leaves a wife and two sons and three daughters.

He was a good man and we do not remember to have ever heard aught against him that was not attributable to unfavorable financial environments.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. S. D. Steffey, who spoke in high terms of eulogy of the deceased.
