Janie Brown and William Truesdale, Their Names.

Janie Brown is the name of the woman found to have been brutally murdered near the Victor cotton mills in Charlotte, and William Truesdale is the negro who has been arrested and confined in jail, charged with the crime. There seems to be no lack of evidence of his guilt. It is a case of crime, bad faith and double murder for the sake of riddance. The parties were late from Greensboro, whence the betrayed woman followed a bad man to her death.

A Credit to Asheville.

Mr. Emit C. Gudger, one of Asheville's most promising young men stood at the head of the sophomore class at the University of North Carolina last session. Mr. Gudger, before going to the University, was a student at the Bingham School, Orange county, near Mebane.

Caught in the Barn.

On Thursday night a negro, Garfield Huff, was caught in Warren Coleman's barn. The negro was arrested and after trial before Mayor Means, was bound over to court. He went to jail in default of a bondsman.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at P. B. Fetzler's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.
