TWENTIETH CENTURY STATE ISSUE

The Raleigh News and Observer's colossal issue, the "Twentieth Century State Edition," has arrived and has been before us for several days. Its magnitude forbids all effort to devour its contents, but as we snatch time to read sections which the index suggests as too interesting to pass over, we are delighted with its version of affairs over the State, and are amazed at its magnitude. Wherever the News and Observer goes in the State, there the pencil-pusher hied him, and gathered up something to sparkle as a set in this journalistic jewel. It makes a book of much value in the hands of an emigration agent, as well as a joy to every Tar-heeler, and a source of deserved pride in the management of the News and Observer.

The copy will serve to give many valuable ideas of men and things in the State. Many hours will be whiled away in scanning its pages by every class of readers, and we fancy the little folks even with it spread on the floor while they lie on the stomach, prop on the elbow, and eye its hundreds of pictures. We suppose that whatever of ambition existed to surpass all the achievements of others in the ponderous industrial issues has been so far outstripped by the News and Observer as to be practically demolished.

This immense paper contains 228 pages, and if the whole issue were laid out in one line of type it would be nine miles long.

President Schurman of the Philippine Commission is to make a report to the president and cabinet on the Philippine situation. It is said that he is impressed that Aguinaldo does not represent a majority of the people and that with the preparations making, a short work will be made of him. This is to be devoutly hoped for. There is little doubt that the Filipinos needed the interference of the United States for their deliverance, will need the aid and protection of the United States by which to reap the fruits of their deliverance and that Aguinaldo with his following is a menace to the reaping of such fruits. A vigorous and forceful onslaught will doubtless end the war with fewer losses of life and a more complete lesson to the would be ruler, Aguinaldo.

RAILROAD FOR SOUTHPORT.

The Southport Standard has been pulling hard for a railroad to that place. A charter has been granted for a railroad from there to Wilmington. The road will probably be built at an early day, and is likely to be a boomer for Southport. We rejoice with Brother Taylor.

The Kinston Free Press is out in a 36-page industrial issue that is very neatly and tastily gotten up. It contains numerous cuts of leading men and business places, stands and beauty spots. Its purpose is not to boom the town, but to tell the world what a nice city Kinston is, and to record much of her early history and traditions. Its narration of Indian troubles is more vivid and horrible than most histories depict. The Free Press has doubtless done a most appreciable service for the citizens of Kinston and the county of Lenoir, and deserves well at their hands. We most heartily congratulate Brother Herbert on this splendid achievement.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Jailer Lee Kills His Assailant.

A desperate life and death struggle was forced upon Jailer Lee by a negro prisoner John Moore on last Sunday. The negro asked him for a match by means of which to get near the jailer when he pounced upon him. It was an awful struggle but the jailer finally freed his arm enough to fire his pistol but he held on and struggled till he got another shot which ended the struggle and his life.

Awful Sequel.

At Pine Bluff, Tenn., last Wednesday night a mob attacked some Mormon elders with stones, eggs, etc., and on their leaving, shots were fired after them, when a young lady with them in the hope of restraining violence, received a shot and was killed almost instantly. Her brothers were greatly enraged, and trailed the perpetrators with bloodhounds. As the young man, who was by the way a Sunday school superintendent, was being trailed, he confessed that he fired the shot and was unwilling to live under the load of remorse of killing the lady. As his pursuers approached him he cut his throat and shot himself dead in the presence of them and his family.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, N. I. For Sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. M. L. Marsh & Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. ## NO WEAR AND TEAR!

Is the laundry hard on your goods? Some are. Examine your goods as carefully when you send them to us as when you receive them back again and you will find that we sew up many a rip, mend many a button hole, put new neck bands on shirts not too badly worn (when requested), and in many ways try to prolong the use of your linen. One trial is not a test. Often damage has been done in previous laundering and we get the blame. Give us your steady patronage and we will guarantee your linen to last longer than when done at many other laundries.
