The Market Has Changed Back.
Six weeks ago Mr. H. A. Graeber sold his beef market to Mr. Frank Freeze, of No. 3 township. The market didn't look right without Mr. Graeber around it and Mr. Freeze didn't feel right in it, so the market has gone back into its original hands. Mr. Graeber has his ad. elsewhere for your reading.

Condition Growing Critical.
The Dreyfus trial should be coming to a close, and indications are that the French government fears some serious trouble at its close. Some troops are held in nearness to Rennes with a view to being available. The trial may be prolonged, however, by the sudden appearance on the scene of an Austrain refugee with testimony bearing against the accused. It is believed that he will prove a fraud, but may at least delay the end of the trial.

Concord Has a Strike.
A strike took place today (Tuesday) on our streets but no one need fear any trouble. Eight negroes who were working on the street above the St. Cloud hotel where the macadam is being taken up laid down their picks and walked away. They were getting 65 cents per day and struck with the hope of getting 75 cents.

Still Active in the Philippines.
Another thrilling act of bravery is reported from Manila on the 2nd inst. Four hundred robbers were fortified in a mountain strong-hold on the island of Negros. Our troops had to charge up a very steep incline, while the enemy fired upon them and rolled heavy boulders down on them. They carried the works, killing 21 of the enemy with the slight injury to a few Americans, though the American forces were greatly inferior in numbers.

The Filipinos attacked Angeles, bringing into action two Kruff guns, but failed to dislodge Col. Smith's command.

Train Dashes Through a Trolley Car.
At Gloucester, Pa., on Sunday evening a train struck a trolley car at the crossing, cutting it into two parts as with a carving knife. One lady was crushed and killed while several persons were more or less hurt. Many jumped and received shocks but it seems little short of a miracle that no more were killed.
