THINGS THAT NEVER DIE.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

The pure, the bright, the beautiful,
That stirred our hearts in youth,

The impulses to wordless prayer,
The streams of love and truth;
The longings after something lost,
The spirit's yearning cry, The striving after better hopes—These things can never die.

The timid hand stretched forth to aid
A brother in his need;
A kindly word in grief's dark hour

That proves a friend indeed; The plea for mercy, softly breathed,
When justice threatens high The sorrow of a contrite heart—
These things shall never die.

The cruel and the bitter word, That wounded as it fell;
The chilling want of sympathy We feel, but never tell;
The hard repulse that chills the heart, Whose hopes were bounding high,
In an unfaded record kept—
These things shall never die.

Let nothing pass, for every hand Must find some work to do; Lose not a chance to waken love;
Be firm, and just, and true;
So shall a light that cannot fade Beam on the form on high,
And angel voices say to thee—
These things shall never die.

A revolutionary trouble has broken out in Venezuela. The Detroit has been ordered from Philadelphia to proceed to Laquayra at once for the safety of American residents. It seems a pity that those Venez-uelans can't cuddle down in harmony and domestic bliss since Uncle Grover practically took the sword in one hand and threw the other arm over the little struggling nation.

Judge Starbuck is among the prominent and conservative Republicans of the State who will vote for the constitutional amendments. Such as he, Settle, Cowles, Guthrie and others indicate that it will not be party vote by which the amendments will be adopted.

The Durham Sun in its report of court proceedings says:
"State vs. Charles Freeland, carrying concealed weapon.
Guilty; 60 days on public roads.
If this witness had not so glaringly lied, his sentence would not have been as severe."

That fellow can't hide pistol nor truth.

CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets.
All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

Hon. Thomas Settle prefers to vote for the constitutional amendments to getting the Republican nomination for governor. This sounds like "I'd rather be right than to be president."

An exchange says that of the 5,920 suicides last year most of them were victims of nervous prostration. The idea is that life is made up of too much rush and push. The wear and strain on the physical machinery is too great.

What the Matter Was.

You "can't always sometimes just tell" why it is so nor just what is the matter with you under such circumstances but this is cause and effect with the Greensboro Telegram:

The monotony of scratching quills and clicking types in the Telegram office was momentarily relieved this morning by an influx of femininity, the peculiar like of which seldom falls to the lot of earthly print shops.

It was an invasion of young girls having all the insanity-provoking qualities of Elysian hours, with hair and eyes that would have driven Apollo wild with hopeless grief, and forms sufficient to cause the bending lily to droop away and die. They carried but a moment, and the air, "like a chartered libertine," stood still lulled by the divine melody of their silver throats.
Journalism shrieked with agony at its inability to then and there grasp forever, world without end, the ineffable felicity that the presence of the visitors inspired. A heavenly crash murmuring, dulcet-trilled words, a divine flash of the rhetoric of pleading eyes—a hop, a skip, a jump and a good-bye—the next moment they were gone, leaving that gloom which a sudden burst of golden sunshine from a storm cloud leaves when it returns to its ethereal realms hid from mortal eye.

Such is life.

Two Passenger Coaches Go Down.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 6.—One of the most serious accidents in the history of the Norfolk & Western occurred this morning near Narrows, a station on the Radford division. Two coaches of an east-bound passenger train jumped the track and rolled down a 30-foot embankment. Two persons were killed and 23 more or less injured. The dead are:
A B Luck, a contractor, of Roanoke; an infant name unknown, from Bluefield, W. Va.

All the injured will recover.
Their wounds are mostly cuts and bruises. They were able to be moved and some confined on their journey. A party of eight was brought to Roanoke tonight and received the necessary medical attention. It is said the spreading of a rail caused the accident. A wrecking train with physicians from Roanoke was sent to the scene of the wreck this noon. Traffic was delayed only a few hours on account of the wreck.

The G. A. R. Encamping.

The G. A. R. is in encampment at Philadelphia. President McKinley has honored it with his presence, as he always does.
Many Southern veterans also are in attendance. The G. A. R. closes its doors against the ex-soldiers of the late war with Spain. They must have their own organization.

What would W W Astor amount to if he migrated to Japan?
There a fellow doesn't amount to shucks as a nabob if he can't run his ancestral line back about 2,500 years. People who can't go back more than 500 or 600 years are looked upon as modern upstarts.—Morning Star.

Fifty Injured In a Wreck On the Balti- more and Ohio.

Connellsville, Pa., Sept. 9.— Probably 50 persons were injured in a rear end collision on the Baltimore and Ohio tonight at Connellsville station. The presence of mind of the engineer saved the lives of many. Many of the injured continued on their journey and their names could not be learned. The first section of train No. 5, and a special of eight Wagner cars, ran into the rear end of the Cumberland accommodation. Both trains were westbound. Engineer Murray, of the emigrant train, lost control of his engine, the air brake refused to work, and crushed into the rear end of the accommodation, which was standing in front of the station and was crowded with passengers. Engineer Haggerty, who was oiling his engine, threw the throttle wide open seeing the runaway train coming. The accommodation train lurched forward, but not quick enough to escape a collision. The crash was terrific. Two coaches of the accommodation were wrecked, the rear end of the last one being crushed as though it had been an egg shell. None of the passengers on the through train were severely injured.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere. For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggists.

Bids Wanted For Lumber.

Cabarrus wants about 11,000 feet of oak and pine lumber for bridge over Rocky River.
J P Allison, chairman of County Commissioners, will receive bids for it.

Colorado's Ad.

It is said that Colorado will have a pyramidal chunk of gold at the Paris Exposition worth $1,000,000.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form.
We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of.
I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.
Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For Sale by

NO WEAR AND TEAR!

Is the laundry hard on your goods?
Some are. Examine your goods as carefully when you send them to us as when you receive them back again and you will find that we sew up many a rip, mend many a button hole, put new neck bands on shirts not too badly worn (when requested), and in many ways try to prolong the use of your linen. One trial is not a test. Often damage has been done in previous laundrying and we get the blame. Give us your steady patronage and we will guarantee your linen to last longer than when done at many other laundries.
