For the Eye & Throat Doctor.
There were two big fights Saturday night. One in the western part of Newton in which about half a dozen men were engaged, and another between Conover and Hickory, in which there were about a dozen combatants. In the latter it is reported that one man had his throat cut, but not quite deep enough to lay him out, another had one eye gouged out and still others received more or less painful wounds. It was a brisk time for fights.—Newton Enterprise.

Such fights seem to be in the interests of the eye and throat specialists.

Announcement.
To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character.

Too Close to Be Comfortable.
Alexander, who is employed at J. K. Goodale's brick yard, came near being "electrocuted" in Sunday evening's storm. The lightning struck Mr. R. A. Crowell's wire fence, and after running along the fence, struck an umbrella in Alexander's hand and glanced off at his foot. He had just been heard to remark, on hearing a thunder clap, "What's all that—fuss about," but in the particular case referred to he was not known to have made any comments at all for at least fifteen minutes afterwards. Owing to certain conditions his utterance is usually thick and the electricity seemed to thicken it more.—Stanly Enterprise.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.
All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold at Fetzer's Drug Store.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.
Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Steamboat Casualties For the Year.

A Washington dispatch says the annual report of General Dumont, the supervising inspector general of steamboat inspection, shows that the total number of accidents to steam vessels during the year was 48, of which seven were breaking steam pipes and mud drums, two explosions and eighteen from snags, wrecks and sinking. The loss of life was 404 an increase over the previous year of 123. Of this number the cause of death in 86 cases was accidental drowning, 213 from wrecks, etc., 13 from fire, 31 from collisions, 24 from explosions or accidental escape of steam and 37 from miscellaneous causes. Of the whole number 158 were passengers and 246 belonged to crews of vessels.

The increase in the loss of life this year over the year 1897 was due to the loss of the steamer Portland, off the Massachusetts coast during a gale on the night of November 27, 1898, wherein every soul on board, 127, perished.

Want a Taste of the War.

A Remarkable Sleep Walker.

A dispatch from Chattanooga to the Atlanta Constitution says: A fourteen-year old boy named Hixfield, who resides in one of the suburbs, went to bed at his home Sunday night about 8 o'clock not feeling very well. About 9 o'clock he arose from his bed, put on his clothes, took an electric car for the city and went to the depot, where he purchased a ticket to Rome, Ga. Reaching Rome he took a cab for one of the hotels where he retired. All this was done while he was sound asleep. When he awoke next morning he could hardly be made believe that he was not at home. He returned to the city on the first train. He is now suffering from brain fever.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

Blue—Stewart It Will Be.

It is announced that the gallant Lieutenant Victor Blue is to be married on Oct. 17, to Miss Mleanor Stewart of Morristown N. J. He is the man that played roundings on the Spaniards at Santiago and she is the niece of Capt Philip Cooper U. S. N.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist
