What Girls Have Accomplished

"Three Louisville girls came out of school a dozen years ago," said O. C. Crawford, of that place, "and resolved, as young men sometimes do, to achieve fame and fortune or at least to make something more than usual of their lives. They formed a sort of club for mutual encouragement. One of them, a daughter of Dr. Yandall, one of the most famous Kentucky physicians, is now regarded as a master sculptor. Her design for a fountain has been successful over those of the leading American sculptors. Another, a daughter of General Basil Duke, is a violin virtuoso, who has been heard as a soloist in many grand concerts. The third, a daughter of Muldoon, who has the order for the mausoleum for young Mackay, to be placed in Greenwood cemetery, is a singer of great power. These girls have shown that, beautiful as the Louisville women are, they have brains also."—Chicago Times-Herald.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Kept Him In the Family.

A Huntington, W. Va. dispatch says:

"William Mercier, of Raccoon Creek, 15 miles from here has married five sisters. Not all at once, of course, but when one wife died Mr. Mercier married her sister. In a word, Mr. Mercier fell in love with the clan of Moffatt, and the Moffatts agreed they must keep him in the family.

"Mr. Mercier smiled when he came here to get his fifth marriage license. He today married Miss Anna Moffatt, who is 26 years old. In pursuance of the plan to keep Mercier in the family Miss Annie rejected a young man of Raccoon Creek.

"Each one of the Moffatt girls has made me a better wife than her sister," said Mr. Mercier today. "I can't say more for any of them than that I really think I am fonder of her than I was of Jennie, Ada, Catherine or Missouri. Anyhow, we're going to have the finest wedding of the lot."

Hudson a State's Witness.

A Winston dispatch says Tom Hudson has turned State's witness in the case for the murder of Brinkley. He says they were all drinking and that Brinkley and Reed got into a fight. Brinkley put his hand to his hip pocket when Reed drew his pistol and fired. It seems that Brinkley was robbed also.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

Miss Mosely Found.

Miss Virginia Mosely, whose sudden and inexplicable disappearance from Monroe last week caused so much solicitude has been found at Wadesboro, and is again at home with her parents. No explanation is offered for the singular conduct.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

M. L. Marsh & Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Bids Wanted For Lumber.

Cabarrus wants about 11,000 feet of oak and pine lumber for bridge over Rocky River. J. P. Allison, chairman of County Commissioners, will receive bids for it.

There is a very peculiar character in the county home for the aged and infirm. He is an old man of intelligence and culture and a fine face. He was found in a barn near town about two weeks ago and was nearly dead. He refuses to give his name or tell where he is from.—Monroe Enquirer.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character
