CONCORD COTTON SEED OIL MILL.

The Game to Be Played Next Week.

All arrangements are being made for the baseball game next week at the Miller park. The proceeds of the game will be given to the Concord band. It will be a hotly contested game between the married and single men of Concord.

The line-up of the mustacheless had not been definitely made up but the married men to be in uniform that day are Lester Coltrane, Jno. B Caldwell, Geo. Murr, Jno. R Patterson, Jno. L Miller, Will Parnell, Ross McConnell, Pink Misenheimer, E C Barnhardt, Robt. F Coble and Jno. C Wadsworth. Richmond Reed has been employed as their catcher. Some changes will probably be made between now and next week but Manager Wadsworth, after inquiring thoroughly as to the baseball qualities of these men, have given them an opportunity of getting in the game. George Richmond is doing the manipulating for the younger team.

To add to the merriment of the occasion the band will be out for the occasion in their uniforms.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They made pure blood strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured, at Fetzer's Drug Store.
