EVANGELIST LEE EXONERATED.

It will be gratifying to the admirers of Evangelist Lee that the committee of investigation find him not guilty of the charges of immorality brought against him. The charges as brought were very damaging to the reputation of a minister of the gospel. So much the meaner it is to concoct a charge of such serious nature. One does not need to be a personal admirer to enter into deep sympathy with the victim of hate and a satanic purpose to ruin the usefulness of one so easily injured as he who wears the ministerial cloth.

The esteemed Morning Post comes back at us and in reply to our reference to that city, named in honor of North Carolina's patron father and the queen's favorite courtier, in adding to its enterprise a soap factory, says:

"Raleigh is generous. Knowing from experience that cleanliness is next to godliness, it desires to be prepared to extend its good offices to its neighbors, that greater Concord may prevail."

Well, we simply serve notice right here and now that if Raleigh does come down to "bilin' soap" Concord will wash her hands of it.

Brakeman Rewarded for His Foresight.

Cumberland, Md., Dispatch, 19th, says: The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company a few days ago sent a brakeman, as a gift, a check for $50 "for using his brains," as one of the officials expressed it. A freight train while coming down the grade between Cranberry Summit and Rowlesburg stopped very suddenly, making a horrible racket. The brakeman, who was on the front of the train, knew something was wrong, and realizing that a westbound Chicago express No. 7 was about to pass, without investigating the trouble, he rushed ahead and flagged No. 7. Had he gone back to investigate it would have been too late and No. 7 would have dashed into four or five derailed cars and tumbled out into the river. For his good judgment the company made him the present of $50, and have posted a bulletin so that those "who run may read."

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. M. L. Marsh & Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Goat Lymph Cures Insanity.

It seems the goat is yet going to forge, or rather but, his way to the front rank of benefactors of the human family. The latest scored by Billy is in the following dispatch of the 23rd from Joliet Ill.

Irwin Fuller Bush, a young man of Joliet, was sent to Kankakee Asylum, last March, pronounced hopelessly insane. Today, through treatment with lymph, from glands of goats, Bush is home, completely restored in mind. The lymph was covered by Dr. Roberts, a physician of Green City, Mo. Its application to cases of insanity was made at a Chicago laboratory, where Bush was taken last June. He has been subjected to injections of the lymph, showing steady improvement until he was discharged last Tuesday, cured.

The treatment is said to also arrest senility. Dr. Roberts has gone to Europe to lay his discovery before Prof. Koch, of Berlin, and other foreign scientists, with a view of having them adopt it in insane asylums there.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

Fine Gift for Dewey.

A pleasant surprise not down on the official program awaits Admiral Dewey. General Albert D. Shaw, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was at the city hall today in conference with the plan and scope committee as to the part the veterans of the civil war will play in the reception. General Shaw is a tall, soldierly man who bears his years well. His home is in Watertown. He will be in the parade at the head of the Grand Army division. When the old soldiers reach the reviewing stand General Shaw will leave the ranks and take up a position beside Admiral Dewey.

As the veterans march by, the general, in behalf of the Grand Army, will fasten to the lapel of the admiral's coat a Grand Army button of solid gold, studded with diamonds. All of the buttons now worn by veterans of the war are bronze. The first departure from the established rule will be made in the case of Admiral Dewey. The admiral is a comrade. The men who fought with him from '61 to '65 glory in his additional honors and they are delighted at an opportunity to show their love and admiration for him.—New York Mail and Express.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane, and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50c. or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Daughters of the Month.

Prof. Argo, the astrological savant, says:

If a girl is born in January, she is melancholy but good tempered.

If in February, a humane and affectionate wife and tender mother.

If in March, a frivolous chatterbox, somewhat given to quarrelling.

If in April, inconstant not intelligent, but likely to be good looking.

If in May, handsome and likely to be happy.

If in June, impetuous, will marry early and be frivolous.

If in July, passably handsome but with a sulky temper.

If in August, amiable and practical and likely to marry rich.

If in September, discreet, affable and much liked.

If in October, pretty and coquettish, and likely to be unhappy.

If in November, liberal, kind, of a mild disposition.

If in December, well proportioned, fond of novelty and extravagant.

Collision's Fatal Results.

A collision on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad near Florence between an excursion and a fast freight on Saturday the 23rd killed six passengers and injured five, one probably fatally.

The Little Patched Trousers.

How dear to my heart are the pants of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents to view,
The pants that I wore in the deep tangled wild wood,
And likewise the groves where the crab apple grew;
The wide spreading seat with its little square patches,
The pockets that bulged with my luncheon for noon,
And also with marbles and fish-worms and matches
And gumdrops and kite strings from March until June—
The little patched trousers, the made-over trousers,
The high-water trousers that fit me too soon.
No pantaloons ever performed greater service
In filling the hearts of us youngsters with joy;
They made the descent from Adolphus to Jarvis,
Right down through a family of ten little boys.
Though no fault of mine, known to me or to others,
I'm the tenderest branch on our big family tree;
And having done service for nine older brothers,
They came down to me slightly bagged at the knee—
The little patched trousers, the second hand trousers,
The old family trousers that bagged at the knee.
