A DISTURBANCE NEAR GLASS.

Last Sunday Night the Time of the Shooting Affair—The Cotton Crop Fully One Third Short—Bishop Hood to Preach at Bethel.

Written for The Standard. Glass, Sept. 26:—We have had fine weather for a week, and the farmers are getting on well picking cotton. The crop is fully one third short.

Mr. Noah Blackwelder has been sick for several days.

Mrs. Ira Winecoff returned from Cresswell Spring's Saturday. Her little son has improved very much.

Mr. Summers, who has been sick for some weeks at Mr. Ed. Cooks, returned to his home in Salisbury Saturday night.

The colored people will be favored next Friday night at Bethel by a sermon from Bishop Hood. A number of white people are talking of going to hear the Bishop.

Mr. Lee Caldwell and family, of Highsprings, Fla., spent a few days last week with their cousin, Mrs. F W Glass.

Mr. R G Mabrey, our depot agent, spent last week with his family in Thomasville.

There was a shooting affair two miles north of this place last Sunday night. There was no one seriously.

A Musical Treat.

About thirty persons attended the concert given at the St. Cloud hotel Monday night. It was not a large crowd and a large crowd was not expected as it was an evening for lovers of vocal and instrumental music. The participants in the program were Miss Minnie Johnson, of Raleigh, Miss Bessie Campbell, Miss Van Wagner, of the Concord Institute and Miss Rose Harris. Every selection was excellently rendered. Miss Johnson, who is on her way to Converse college, where she teaches the violin, is a most excellent performer on the violin and our people were fortunate in hearing her. Besides the vocal and instrumental selections, Miss Bessie Campbell, in her splendid style, recited twice.

The proceeds of the entertainment went to defray some expenses at the Episcopal church. Twelve dollars was the amount realized.

To Be a Newspaper Man.

From a letter from Prof. E B Lewis, of Kinston, formerly the superintendent of our graded schools, we learn that he is now engaged in newspaper work. At present he is writing for a newspaper syndicate and expects to soon take a place on the Chicago Times-Herald.

Punished For Overdriving.

Jas Simpson, a young man of Forest Hill, some days ago overdrove a horse for Liveryman Corl. The law investigated the case and the young man had to pay ten dollars and the costs for his unthoughtful conduct. Esq. Pitts tried the case.

—Mr. Jno. B Sherrill is spending this afternoon in Charlotte.

A RECKLESS DRIVER.

Causes the Death of One of Mr. Eddleman's Best Horses—Rev. Miller to Take a Special Course at Chicago.

Written for The Standard.

Mr. H. J Eddleman, liveryman, lost one of his best horses, Monday. Ross Eller, a young man who works in the cotton mill here, hired the horse and a buggy Sunday to take his girl out driving. They left here at 8 o'clock and returned some time in the evening. When he got home the horse fell to his knees several times before he could be loosed from the buggy. The horse, after being unhooked, suffered greatly until death. His death was caused by over-driving. The boy will no doubt pay dearly for his trip.

Mr. Gus. Stewart, family an overseer in the cotton mill here, has moved to Statesville where he will likely locate.

Dr. Murdock, of Salisbury held services in the academy hall last night.

Rev. J P Miller left this morning for Chicago, where he will enter school to take a special course. Rev. Leroy Deaton will fill his pulpit during his absence.

A Bran New Baby In Town.

The lecture Monday night in the opera house was fairly well attended as compared with other entertainments and we believe was generally well enjoyed.

It is doubtless a matter of curiosity to those not present, what would be the line of thought in a lecture on "A Bran New Baby In Town." The speaker started with parental precautions for the babe in the period when crying is its only means of making known its wants, with increased judiciousness as the young people advance in childhood and approach manhood and womanhood, not neglecting to impart some wholesome lessons of duty, of veneration, of obedience and affection from the young to parents. The evils of cigarette smoking and liquor drinking were partrayed in strong colors and should have a good effect.

The lecture was interspersed with humor of the most ludicrous sort, decidedly more ludicrous than well connected with the drift of the line of thought.

Lester Gray Home from the Army.

Lester Gray, son of Mr. Jno. M Gray, who formerly lived on Young avenue, has returned home from the army. It will be remembered that some months ago he enlisted in service again at Greensboro. He was placed in the Thirty-fifth regiment, Company A, and has been at Vancouver, Washington. He had the misfortune to be thrown from his horse and received an injury in the hip. His injury was not bad, but enough that he was discharged from the regiment as it was necessary to sail for the Philippines. He arrived at Salisbury last Sunday. He has recovered from his fall and hates that he was discharged.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mr. Chase Brenizer, of Charlotte, is spending today here.

—Messrs. H M Weir and J W Toney went over to Charlotte this morning.

—Miss Minnie Johnson, of Raleigh, left this morning for Spartanburg, S C.

—Mr. D B Coltrane and Dr. W C Houston went to Norwood this morning on business.

A THOUSAND TONGUES

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her hacking cough that for made years had made life a burden.
