CONCORD, N. C., Sept. 28.

BOSTON AND THE BAKERS.

It will be remembered that a Miss Jewett of the city of Boston came down to South Carolina and pressed her persuasions till she got the family of the murdered postmaster at Lake City to go with her to Boston, expecting to raise much sensation and probably more money and hatred of the South by exhibiting Mrs. Baker and her children. The first exhibition was a howling success. Mrs. Baker got into a Southern darkey way and shouted in camp-meeting style.

Miss Jewett, however, has found the enterprise devoid of profits and of glory and has dropped the Baker family to shift for themselves in the city where sentimentalism unaccompanied with the genuine philanthropy felt by the Southern people has quickly vanished and they are objects of cold charity. Persons looking after the Bakers have even called on New York to relieve them of the burden of this one family while all the time the Bostonians are catching on to every instance of real or apparent cruelty by Southern whites toward the race.

But so it goes, there seems no way for sections to understand each other and there are always sharpers like Miss Jewette wants to be to take advantage of sectional misunderstandings and prejudices to get dimes and glory out of it.

Boiler Blows Up.

Rutherfordton, N. C., Sept. 27.—The boiler of a saw mill near town exploded at 12 o'clock today, fatally scalding Panther (white), Smith (white) and Webb (colored), and seriously injuring Pool (white), breaking his jaw bone and injuring his head, also scalding him. The boiler was blown three hundred yards, cutting off trees sixteen inches through.

The One Thing Denied Dewey.

The only thing that Dewey really seems to hanker for is quiet and a chance to get back to Montpelier without attracting attention. And the great American people are willing to give him anything but that for which he asks.—Des Moines Leader.

Bryan Will Help Goebel.

A Louisville dispatch of the 27th, says Bryan has definitely determined to aid Goebel in the Kentucky gubernatorial campaign. He has authorized appointments for October 15th, 17th and 18th.

The Barlow Minstrels Tonight.

The Barlow Minstrels arrived here early this morning in their private car and will play to a large house tonight. They gave a parade today at noon. Their band numbers fourteen and is composed of musicians of merit. Fun and fine music, mixed with their specialties, will keep the audience pleased tonight. The Charlotte Observer speaks well of their performance there last night.

Big Job for Uncle Sam.

It is said there are 70,000,000 acres of arid lands between the Missouri river and the Rocky Mountains that will become tilable and productive when irrigated. It is another big job for the government to tackle.

Big Cotton Receipts.

The Star says Wilmington's cotton receipts last Monday were 5,922 bales, a record breaker. On the same day last year the number was 3,490 bales.

The Superintendent of Public Schools of Indianapolis says that prosperity does not have the effect of increasing the number of children in the educational institutions. "The fact is," he says, "that prosperity decreases the number of pupils—in the high schools particularly—because there is work to be had, and boys from twelve years up turn their backs on school and take the jobs offered."—Daily Reflector.

Rev. Sam Jones is in a quandary. He is wanted in Chattanooga, where the grand jury would like to have him give it some information, and he is wanted at Cartersville, his home town, by a neighbor, who has a grievance and wants to punch him some. Sam isn't quite decided whether he hadn't better decline both invitations and climb a tree.—The Morning Star.

The wife of Wm. Swartwood, a railroad engineer in Pennsylvania, surprised him on his arrival at home by presenting him with her twenty-fifth child. In the twenty-five are three pairs of twins. Twenty-three are living.—Ex.

One brother fatally shot another a few days ago while playing with an old pistol. The "unloaded" pistol is never too old to go off and make trouble for people who happen to be in front of it.—The Morning Star.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50c. or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Things That Other People Do.

The man who does his best to make the world a better place,

Whose heart is pure, who dares to look his neighbor in the face,

Is not the one who takes delight in holding up to view

And scoffing at the foolish things that other people do.

The man who gains the noble height where fame and honor wait

Wins no delight from petty spite, he gives no heed to hate,

For he has little chance to reach this distant summit who Gives up his time to smudging things that other people do.

I like the honest man who tries to keep away from sin;

I like the man who seeks to rise, but does no wrong to win—

The world is brighter for the day spent in his presence who

Can keep from finding fault with things that other people do.

—S. E. Kiser in Chicago Times-Herald.

Mrs. Clara E Wright is running a profitable little print shop in the Klondike, where she issues a paper (monthly) and gets a dollar a copy for it. It is called by the catchy name of the Rampart City Whirlpool, and is probably the only paper in this country which is set up without a compositor or printed without a press. Every copy is typewritten, so that she and her typewriting machine compose the whole layout.—Morning Star.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

Secretary Root is besieged with requests from officers' wives to go to Manila. Gen. Otis recently cabled the war department that there were no accommodations in the Philippines for women. In view of this and the near approach of the campaign, together with the fact that all available space on the transports is needed, Secretary Root has issued a circular letter refusing all requests.—Washington Dispatch.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. M. L. Marsh & Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

The gift of the city of New York to Admiral Dewey on his home coming will be a cup made entirely of eighteen-carat gold. It is about 13 inches high, and holds 4 1/2 quarts.—Daily Reporter.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere. For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggists.
