

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For Sale by M. L. Fatally Foolish Father and Son.

The Atlanta Journal of the 25th, inst., tells a peculiarly sad and warning story of the death of W R Hays, of Thompson, Ga., by the hand of his son.

The father was "on a tear" at night. The son, walking through a cotton field, heard a peculiar noise. He went to the house and got his gun, his brother and the dogs. They halted at a safe distance from what sounded, as they thought, like a mad-dog or wild-cat. The son raised his gun and fired at the object. His aim was true. The load took effect in his father's abdomen and killed him almost instantly. The jury of inquest found no evidence of crime. There seems no lack of evidence of great folly on the part of father and son, though.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50c. or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

A MODDLE LOVE LETTER.

gar. I am dying to fly to thy presence, and pour out the burning eloquence of my love, as thrifty house wives pour out hot coffee. When away from you, I am as melancholy as a sick rat. Sometimes I can hear the hum of the June-bugs of despondency buzzing in my ears and I feel the cold lizards of despair crawling down my back. Uncouth fears, like a thousand minnows, nibble at my spirits, and my soul is pierced with doubts like an old cheese board with skippers. My love for you is stronger than the smell of patent butter or the kick of a young cow, and more selfish than a kitten's first caterwaul. As a song bird hankers for the light of day, the cautious mouse after a piece of bacon in the trap, or a weaned pup longs for new milk, so I long for thee. You are fairer than a speckled pullet, than a Yankee doughnut fried in sorghum molasses; brighter than the top-knot plumage on the head of a Muscovy duck. You are candy, kisses, raisins, pound cake and sweetened toddy altogether. And if these few lines will enable you to see the inside of my soul, and assist me in winning your affections, I shall be as happy as a wood pecker in a cherry tree, or stage horse in a green pasture. If you cannot reciprocate my soul-mastering passion, I will pine away like a poisoned caterpillar, and fall away to the flourishing vine of life an untimely branch. And in the coming years, when the shadows grow from the hills, and the philosophical frog sings his cheerful evening hymns, you, happy in another's love, can come and shed a tear and catch a cold upon the last resting place of Yours truly, YOU KNOW.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Never fails to cure; Then why experiment with worthless imitation? Price 50 cents. Your money back if it fails to cure.

CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
