Trustee's Sale.

By virtue of authority vested in me by a Deed in Trust or Mortgage, executed by J. A. Smith and wife, Mary J. Smith, on the 9th day of December, 1887, which Mortgage or Deed in Trust is duly recorded in Register's office for Cabarrus county, N. C., in Book No. 3, pages 558 and 559, I will sell at public auction at the court house door in Concord, N. C., on the 28th day of October, 1899, to the highest bidder, for cash: Said J. A. Smith's entire interest in his father's real estate located in No. 9 township, being by will one-ninth of Matthias Smith, deceased, entire real estate, supposed to be about one hundred acres. (Since the execution of this mortgage the interest of John A. Smith has been set apart by metes and bounds and is known as lot No. 5) and is bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone by a dogwood and corner of lot No. 4 and runs S. 87 1/2°, E. 41 po. to a stone and white rock, Hearns corner, then with his line S. 20°, W. 162 po. to a stone on the south edge of the great road, Hearns corner, then with the road as follows: 1st N. 53°, W. 27 po. to a stone in the road, then 2nd N. 31°, W. 53 po. to a stone on the south edge of the road by a P. O., Widenhouse's old corner, then 3rd line on road N. 20°, W. 24 po. to a small white oak on the north edge of the road, then a dividing line, N. 52 1/2°, E. 16 1/2 po. to the beginning, containing 53 acres, more or less.

Title to said property is supposed to be good, but the purchaser takes such title as I am authorized to convey under said mortgage.

Carter Must Take the Medicine.

The sentence of the court-martial in the case of Captain Oberlin M. Carter has been approved and confirmed by President McKinley, Secretary of State Root, Adjutant General Corbin and others in the line. The sentence was sharp and is not softened in the least. It implies dismissal from the army, a five years imprisonment at hard labor, a fine of $5,000 and publication of his name, the crime and punishment in the newspapers of his State and the station where the crime was committed. Fort Leavenworth has been designated as the place of imprisonment and Carter has been arrested.

A resume of this case may be necessary as it has faded from the minds of many.

In December 1897 Carter was formally charged with entering into conspiracy with others to defraud the government in contracts at Savannah, Ga., where he, as engineer, was in command of work under the River and Harbor bill. The sum out of which the government was said to have been defrauded was from $1,600,000 to $2,000,000. It seems that every chance has been given Captain Carter to show his innocence or establish a doubt. All has failed and he stands crushed beneath the blow of what seems to be strict justice.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50c. or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., N. Y.
