ASHE SCUTTLE MAKES A BIG FIRE.

The deafmute asylum in Little Rock Ark was a total loss by fire last Saturday morning. It has a lesson in it. Some one had set out a scuttle of fiery ashes on the dormitory porch. When the fire was discovered the inmates had but barely time to escape in their night clothes. The losses are estimated at $160,000.

There's danger in hot ashes.

Mr. John P Kerr, the able and genial editor of the Asheville Citizen, has sold his interest in that excellent Journal to Mr. W G Eggleston. We read his valedictory with a pang of sorrow, for we envy him a good degree of ability not overly common in the great newspaper field. The salutatory of Mr. Eggleston, though very brief, carries assurances that there is to be no retrograde in the Citizen. We extend the fraternal hand.

An exchange says there are two men that take no stock in the Dewey and Wheeler Democratic national ticket, viz: William McKinley and William J Bryan. We think we can add two more, viz: George Dewey and Joe Wheeler.

Admiral Dewey admitted just a few callers on last Sunday and did not shake hands as his right hand was the most over worked part of the man. A sore hand is the thorn about the rose of fame.

Among the various enterprises of High Point is a trunk factory that makes a metal trunk tra.

Had a Glorious Time.

The Times-Visitor says the "boys" of the military company have returned from New York. They had a glorious time, they say.

Nothing in It.

Aguinaldo's delegation to Gen. Otis was another game for recognition of Aguinaldo and his following as a government. It was fruitless. The Filipinos claim that they can keep up the war indefinitely.

Mr. Courtney—"I had the blues awfully when I came here to-night, Miss Fisher, but they are all gone now. You are as good as medicine."

Miss Fisher's Little Brother—"Yes; father says she'll be a drug in the market if she doesn't catch on to some fellow."—Tid Bits.

Celebration Ends In Climax.

The climax of interest was reached Tuesday in honoring the hero of Manila Bay. The sword presented by act of Congress was placed into his hands by Secretary Long through the hand of President McKinley. It was soon afternoon and on the steps of the capitol. Secretary Long made a brilliant presentation speech which he prefaced by reading dispatches that led to and followed the great battle.

He also read the acts of Congress that inspired the great gathering. After the presentation the program for Dewey's review of the military parade was carried out.

The great reception wound up with a dinner by President McKinley at 8 o'clock p. m. It is said to have been the greatest occasion of the kind in the history of the White House.

Both Dewey and Schley received ovation on their entrance.

The Admiral will now go to his home people in Vermont when he will make his permanent home in Washington.

Greatest in the World's History.

"No man ever in the history of the world received such honor as is being accorded to Admiral Dewey by the American people," said president Alderman, of the University of North Carolina, at the Yarborough yesterday. "Caesar's triumphs in Rome and France's welcome to Napoleon on his return from Austerlitz were great events—great demonstrations—but neither of them compared with the magnificent ovation now being given Dewey in New York.—News-Observer.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at P. B. Fetzer's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For Sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Drugist.
